

N. Machine 591

Chapter: 591

[No. They will not leave, you know this. These people are terrifying, but at least we can persuade these people.]

'VIP room?'

Yeowun had been tapping into the telepathic messages ever since he got here. From the conversation, it seemed there was a person that they feared in the VIP room. Dahing then looked up to Yeowun and asked, "Sir... can you please just go this time?"

Chapter: 592

Dahing thought that would be the case. But he didn't realize that Yeowun's thoughts and actions weren't that anyone can predict.

"...I see. I didn't imagine you would have such an issue. Are those Gar Brothers downstairs?"

"Oh!"

Chapter: 593

"What?"

Yeowun then reached his two hands out and gestured of pulling it toward him, and two warriors who were focusing energy into their feet to run away were pulled forward, sending them down into the ground.

"Ugh!"

Chapter: 594

"Shut up."

"UGH!"

Hu Bong became angry and struck Gar Ren's head from behind.

Chapter: 595

They were pirates, but the most important rule of the 18 River Families was to never betray each other. But Gar Mo thought lying might cost his life. After going through many thoughts in a short moment, Gar Mo chose to betray his fellow pirates.

“I-if you go out east and follow the river about 50 miles down, you will reach Doman Mountain. And by the corner where the river splits, you will find them.”

Gar Mo revealed the location of Yongho Family. Fellow pirates were important, but his own life was more important than that. Yeowun then turned to Dahing and Dahing nodded with a grim look, confirming the information to be the truth.

“Hah...”

Fortunately, it seemed Yeowun was considering the information he got from the Gar Brothers to be given by the Osang Family House. Dahing sighed in relief. Yeowun then laughed and spoke to Dahing.

“Oh, and just for your information. You have one more spy within your family. I’m sure you can take care of that yourself.”

Chapter: 597

“That ship is quite large.”

Yeowun then pointed at the two large ships docked by the dock at the village. They saw many ships over at the river while they traveled down here, but that ship was much larger than any of the others.

“Hm... this is strange.”

Chapter: 598

It was time for a shift change. Bakgi tried to charge at them but...

“UGH!”

Hu Bong and Yang Danwa appeared behind them and quickly killed them. They saw other watchers approaching the tower so they quickly came after Bakgi to help. It could have revealed them if they were a bit late.

Chapter: 599

“I-I don’t know! I don’t know anything about a granddaughter. I mean, we don’t even have anyone being kept from the outside right now!”

“What?”

That was strange. This was about the granddaughter of the Godly Doctor, and it was Hing Wunja, under the truth serum, who spoke. He said he messaged the Yongho family to retrieve her any time, so that wasn’t a lie.

Chapter: 600

“W-what should we do? The water’s becoming more rapid!”

Their small boat was moving through the river water very quickly. It seemed like they were going to shoot past the ship of Yongho Family at this rate.

“I guess we can’t do it quietly then.”
