

Nano Machine |

Chapter: 6

[I am the 7th generation Nano Machine, made by Sky Corporation to serve as a core to support Master's brain.]

"Wait, what? What are you talking about?"

The boy became pale as what he was being told was beyond his comprehension. The Nano Machine realized that the user did not understand their words.

"Who are you, and what do you want with me?!"

[I am the 7th generation Nano Machine.]

"Nano Ma Sin (Evil God)?"

[Yes. I am Nano Machine.]

The boy's face turned grim. The Evil God was the being that the Demonic Cult worshipped. The Lord was the one who was given the power to communicate with the said God.

"A-are you really the Evil God?"

He was now kneeling on his knees, asking with a shaking voice. The Nano Machine had understood that the boy had gotten everything completely wrong.

The boy's name was Chun Yeowun.

He was the member of the Chun family, the highest-ranked family in the Demonic Cult. The Chun family was related to the great Lord himself, and everyone considered them to be extremely powerful. However, contrary to people's speculations, they were just a part of the six main families that maintained the Demonic Cult.

Chun Yeon was the son of a female slave who worked at the Lord's chamber and was not from the six families. Although he was the child of a slave, he was still part of the Chun family and he had the right to the throne. Nonetheless, he was not even close to having a chance at taking the throne.

Then what made him fall encounter danger? The reason was with his mother, Lady Hwa. The Lord who did not like any of the six women from the six families fell in love with a mere slave. This made the other wives angry and spiteful. Moreover, their fury didn't just end there.

Chun Yeowun encountered multiple life threats throughout the fifteen years of his life. He had no chance of succeeding the throne, but he was still wanted for his life due to the anger of the other wives. Since seven days ago, the assassination attempts increased greatly. It was because it was now time for him to join the Demonic Academy and that would test his right to succeed and earn the title to be the Lord's heir.

If he joined the academy, he would learn martial arts and grow in power to have his own force. And the academy prohibited most outside entries, which would ensure his safety.

That's why the assassination attempts happened so often.

"D-did you save my life, God?"

Chun Yeowun asked the voice in his head while he laid flat on the ground. The Nano Machine answered.

[If it is about the enemy who tried to kill you, no. But if you are talking about Master's wound after going into self-healing mode, yes.]

"W-what is a self-healing?"

Yeowun couldn't understand most of the words that the Nano Machine used. Nano Machine realized that they couldn't communicate like this.

[Sending basic information to Master's brain...]

"Huh?"

Nano Machine understood that it needed to find the right words for its master to understand.

[Searching for the right words for the era and culture.]

Nano Machine began searching through words and terms so that Chun Yeowun could understand. After a while, Nano Machine finished selecting the words to communicate.

[Master, I am not the Evil God that you speak of.]

Chun Yeowun became surprised at the sudden change of tone, although it still sounded mechanical.

"What? Then who are you?"
