

N. Machine 601

Chapter: 601

With Yeowun's words, the man's eyes grew large with shock. It seemed he was shocked that the who seemed to be from the Blade God Six Martial clan knew the secret Blue Sky Brotherhood organization.

[M-master! What do you want us to do! I-I think he's too powerful!!]

That's when Yeowun heard Bok Hosun, leader of the Yongho Family, sending telepathic messages to the man. Bok Hosun was terrified to see Chun Yeowun flying on an air sword. But the man was also frustrated by what was going on.

Chapter: 602

[Stay still.]

The man then walked up and shouted at Chun Yeowun.

"I know you are a powerful man, but are you sure you can take that woman out safely from this ship?"

Chapter: 603

But Yeowun did not respond to the telepathic message and spoke.

"Kill the baby."

"W-what?!"

Chapter: 604

'Was he certain that they were lying? The Lord sometimes makes me think that he is listening to other people's telepathic messages or can read others' minds.'

Every enemy who fought against Yeowun became shocked, as Yeowun found out their plans as if he knew it ahead of time. But that was impossible, so it was only explainable through boldness and excellent decision-making skills.

'I see how he managed to defeat the six clans.'

Chapter: 605

“Oh, I’m sorry. I had to listen to something.”

“I just said I will surrender! Please let me live!”

Yeowun then looked down at Bok Hosun and spoke casually.

Chapter: 606

He ordered silently while Yeowun was handling the Captain. Even if Yeowun had a strong sense to sense people, it was impossible to sense those who snuck out of the ship when there are 300 warriors around.

“Do you think I will not get to them if they are swimming in the river? Hmm... I think they are still within my range.”

The river moved very fast, so those men in the river were already quite far from the ship. But Yeowun said it was enough.

Chapter: 607

This was something nobody had thought about. Yeowun could have done this method to send his members up on the ship while ago, but that was too obvious and noticeable, so Yeowun chose to sneak in with the boat. Yeowun then spoke to the man.

“Oh, I’m sorry. I think I will take the baby with me also.”

The man became furious at sarcasm and shouted, “Dammit! Do you even know where the baby is?! I’m sure you don’t!”

Chapter: 608

But with him dodging it, over tens of pirates behind him had their necks and chests cut through. Blood poured out from their bodies, covering the entire ship.

“Ugh!”

And in a slight second, Chun Yeowun was already standing upon the man. The man spun his body left and brought up his blade to cover and Yeowun struck it down.

Chapter: 609

On top of the ship, pirates were looking toward the hole with a tense look. The sound was sure that they seemed to be fighting. Soon, it turned quiet.

“...Is it over?”

At moment, the man penetrated through the floor of the deck, and Yeowun’s body stormed up while he swung White Dragon Blade, like a rising dragon.

Chapter: 610

Nano’s voice rang through his head.

[Activating self-targeting mode on 63 weapons. Locking onto targets...]

Yeowun saw tiny red circles appearing over the pirates who were running away in all directions. Over 60 weapons shot up and circled around the ship, aiming outward. The pirates all became shocked to see weapons floating in the air and stopped. They became terrified to see the weapons aimed at them.
