

N. Machine 691

Chapter: 691

Those words made Chun Yeowun puzzled. It was a simple question, but Chun Yeowun was able to understand two things from it. Firstly, the Alumni unit struggled with not just the Golden Council, but also the West Spear, a group made up of the same eunuchs.

Secondly, among the spies the elder found out, one could have been a spy of the West Spear and not the Blade God Six Martial clan.

'This isn't turning out any easier.'

Chapter: 692

Fall!

Chun Yeowun took off his hands from Daedung-Du's neck. Relieved that he wasn't going to lose his life, he sank to the ground. It was surprising that the force that was squeezing out the life from him disappeared just like that.

Taking pity, Chun Yeowun said to him.

Chapter: 693

"It is time to hunt down all the rats."

At the end of her words, the eyes of countless human figures flickered deep inside the bamboo forest.

Enclosed in the dark sky, the shining full moon was covered by the clouds.

Chapter: 694

'How did it all come to this? If Im Gong-Gong isn't here, he cannot be admitted into our organization.'

If only Lord Oh, the next in power, was present, Chun Yeowun could be granted access to enter.

'What should I do? Ah...'

Chapter: 695

[I like your martial arts, the impression, the flow, and the well-established structure. Come to the main hall in the middle of the day.]

Unfortunately, Hu Bong got picked up by one of the East Spear before he could even dig up any information about the spies. He wanted to inform Chun Yeowun, but there was no way that they could contact each other with how things were going.

The internal energy of those around him wasn't normal, and he couldn't even guess how strong Elder Khum was, the one seated in the middle of the hall.

Chapter: 696

'Damn it!'

He thought that things were going well. He decided to stay silent as things would only get complicated from there. Even so, Elder Khum still shouted this time.

"Who just coughed right now!"

Chapter: 697

All of a sudden, someone intervened in front of Hu Bong and dissipated his attack. Despite being revered as someone powerful, his attack got easily blocked, and the man immediately countered back.

Swa! Swa! Swa! Swa!

The Air Sword which moved with profound aerodynamics drew its trajectory and stabbed the heart of Elder Khum.

Chapter: 698

[Lord!]

[You did well. Hu Bong.]

Chun Yeowun looked and praised him. In order to save him, he had to confront Elder Khum. As a result, Chun Yeowun learned that he was tough to deal with. Unlike the other eunuchs, he was mastering an extraordinary skill with his internal energy.

Chapter: 699

“It is here.”

“All of you be quiet!”

Elder Khum silenced the officials of the East Spear who kept on mumbling in anxiousness.

Chapter: 700

“There were rats in the Imperial Palace and the most dangerous one of them got chased in this direction, did anything interesting catch your eyes?”

“Interesting?”

“I have been thinking for a while, but the audience of the East House seemed to have the Devil’s Pandemonium.”
