

Chapter 12 Stay Close To Me

Friday

Susan was going home from work when her cell phone rang.

It was Albert.

Susan frowned lightly. They haven't contacted each other since that day.

As before, he never went home.

Unlike before, she never called him.

Susan thought he wouldn't call for a long time again. Unexpectedly, his phone came today.

Susan picked it up, "What's the matter?"

"Have dinner with me."

Recently, her diet was light and her mood was stable. She seemed to be like a normal person. Even if she didn't take medicine, she wouldn't feel anything abnormal.

And now he suddenly invited her to go to the party.

Susan didn't want to have dinner with him. She wanted to keep her current life.

"I... I don't want to..."

"I won't call you if you couldn't go."

Grandpa and uncle also talked to her and asked her to cooperate with Albert to show up on some occasions.

She also promised, and now there seemed to be no reason to refuse.

Moreover, she has promised Albert to act with him, and this was also related to her brand's safety.

"OK, I'll go home and change my clothes. Send the address to my mobile phone."

"OK."

When She returned home, and had changed her clothes, put on her makeup, and was ready to drive, she found that Albert had not sent them an address yet.

As soon as she took out the phone and was about to call him, his car stopped in front of her.

The window went down and he said, "Get in."

Susan opened the door and got in the car. She didn't say much. After all, they were acting.

Both of them were speechless on the road until they arrived at their destination.

Albert just opened his mouth and said, "This banquet is very important. It's up to you whether your company can revival."

A trace of doubt flashed in Susan's eyes. In her mind, she never wanted to revive.

After all, she had little time and she was incapable.

Now... Albert wanted to revive Laura's company.

Seeing her stunned look, Albert said bluntly, "This is my career ambition. Since your company is in my hand, I can't see it dying."

The implication is, that I'm not doing this for you.

Susan whispered, "I understand."

Albert let out a sound and kept showing a cold face as if someone owed him a lot of money.

Until they entered the banquet hall, other people thought they quarreled.

Susan took his arm, "What's the matter with you? Didn't you say you were going to introduce me to foreign partners? Where are they?"

Albert ignored her and showed her around.

Susan was a little unhappy and shook off his arm. "Play by yourself."

Albert fiercely grabbed her, "Stay close to me."

"....."

At this time, there was some movement outside.

Susan looked up and saw a tall man with a handsome face and many bodyguards behind him.

This person was indescribable. At least she was also a girl who grew up in a rich family. She met many playboys.

And this one... Is the noblest man she had ever seen.

Albert showed a shallow smile, "He finally comes."

"He doesn't look like a foreigner."

"Of course, he is not a foreigner. He just lives abroad. The raw material technology of his family is several times better than the raw materials you use now. If you can catch up with him today, your company will not go downhill all the time."

"What's his name?"

"Aaron Shawn."

Aaron Shawn... Susan looked at him carefully. He looked gentle, perhaps related to his growing environment, and he exuded a gentleman's demeanor.

Albert slowly walked over with Susan and stretched out his hand towards Aaron. "Mr. Aaron, I've heard a lot about you."

Aaron shook his hand, "Hello."

Then his eyes fell on Susan. She didn't know if it was an illusion. Susan felt that he was familiar for a moment.

As if they met before.

Seeing that they looked at each other, Albert stepped forward and stood in front of Susan. "You know my wife?"

Aaron smiled, "A little familiar."

This was a god-given opportunity.

Susan bypassed Albert, "President Aaron, can I borrow you for a while?"

Aaron, "Sure."

Then he followed Susan to a quiet corner.

Other people were stunned at the moment.

Everyone wanted to talk with this international leader. Unexpectedly, Susan took the lead.

Everyone was jealous.

Then someone whispered contemptuously, "This woman is really powerful. Not long ago, she beat Lacey. Forcing Albert to admit that it wasn't him. Now she is still hooking a man in front of him."

"Yes, this Albert usually looks like a powerful man. Unexpectedly, he was played by a woman. Useless."

Albert looked at the women who talked very well with Aaron over there and sneered without a trace.

Then he went to them.

He sat directly on Susan's side and put his hand on her shoulder, "Do you mind if I join you together?"

Anyway, she had gotten the business card, and Susan didn't care about Albert at all.

Aaron said politely, "You two have a really good relationship."

Susan wanted to laugh at this compliment.

Aaron picked up the wine in front of him, "I have something else to do. Cheers."

Susan stared at the wine glass in front of her and was very tangled. When she was ready to drink it, the cup in her hand was taken over.

Albert drank it all at once. "My wife doesn't like drinking at ordinary times. I drink it for her."

Then, he picked up the wine in front of him and drank it in one gulp.

Aaron said with a smile, "Cheers, cheers."

Then he got up and left.

In the meantime, Jessie ran over in a hurry.

Jessie whispered, "Miss, something's wrong!"
