

Chapter 26 It Was Her Despair

He thought this time might be a month, even a year.
But he didn't expect that she still wouldn't show up after three years.

Susan had completely faded out of Albert's life.

No one dares to mention her name in front of her.

But he couldn't help thinking of her. He called, sent messages, and tried to contact her with all social tools.

But he was in her blacklist.

And her old accounts were never used.

Even if he changed his number and account, he still couldn't find her.

She disappeared, somewhere in the world.

He couldn't find her.

But.....

Albert looked at the marriage certificate in his hand.
She would always be his wife and couldn't run away.

Go back from work, he would take it out and have a look.

On a business trip, he would take it out.....

The door of the office was knocked.

Albert put down his marriage certificate and said,
"Come in."

The assistant pushed the door in, "Mr. Albert, you need to fly over and talk about the makeup supply place in person. The new technology is more difficult this time."

Albert nodded, "Book a ticket for me."

Susan's company had successfully revived in the past three years. Not only did the products sell well, but also other fields were equally popular.

This time, together with the most famous designers and the best blenders in the world, he developed a new lipstick. He intended to start a new series called "Lifetime".

This time, the requirements were very strict. They complement each other and make up for each other's shortcomings, to build the brand of "Lifetime".

He should go abroad to check the procedures himself.

Now, Albert and Susan's company stood side by side again and even made Susan's brand international.

It could be said that he spent more effort on Susan's than his own company. He wanted her to see that he was sincere and that he didn't lie to her.

For three years, he had only focused on doing it.

Susan, do you see it.....

Come back, please.....

But he never heard from her. She didn't come back and didn't even send him a message.

Three days later, the plane landed in a foreign country. Soon after he got off the plane, it began to snow.

What Susan once said flashed through his mind. She said she wanted to travel around the world. Maybe she would settle in a paradise and would never come back.

So, if he traveled all over the world, would he have the chance to meet her?

The snow was getting heavier and heavier. He had to go to a restaurant. He hadn't eaten yet.

"Albert, long time no see....."

Albert frowned:he didn't like being disturbed.

Turning to look at the man, he frowned deeper, "Why are you here?"

Aaron sat directly opposite him, "Are you surprised?"

This was where Aaron's family was located.

Albert didn't feel surprised,but disgusted:"If that's all you want to say, get out of my sight immediately."

Aaron was not angry, even quite happy. "I heard that you are single. Tut tut Tut, I thought you would live with your beloved Lacey."

Albert's patience had reached the limit.

He stood up and was about to leave.

Aaron grabbed his wrist, "What are you doing in such a hurry? I guess you're sitting here thinking about Susan? What a pity..."

Mentioning Susan, Albert's eyes suddenly became cold.

This name had not been mentioned to him for three years.

Looking at his angry face, Aaron smiled more happily, "Don't you always wonder why I suddenly stopped playing those tricks?"

Albert shook off his hand coldly, "I'm not interested!"

Aaron rubbed his wrists and said to him, "Because Susan got cancer, I couldn't bear to destroy her company, so I gave you the chance to find out the truth."

Albert stiffed.

He grabbed Aron's collar. "What are you talking about?"

Aaron was still laughing, "Oh, it seems that you don't know? I already said that there are many things you don't know!"

"I ask you, what are you talking about?"

"I said Susan got cancer. Is it clear? Do I need to repeat it?"

Albert suddenly stumbled, his whole body seemed to lose strength, and his nerves were stiff. He didn't even respond.

It was like an old movie in front of him, flashing Susan frame by frame.

No wonder she wanted him for half a year.

No wonder she suddenly showed weakness.

No wonder she agreed to divorce.

No wonder.....

Everything he didn't understand at that time suddenly became clear.

It was all because of her despair...

She must long for hope at that time...

But what he gave her was deeper despair.....

When her life had drawn a stop, he was still wantonly hurting her.....

He squatted down in pain, held his head in his hands, and finally cried bitterly.

Aaron looked at him coldly and felt very happy.
"Aren't you a badass? Cut me off halfway, and sent me to the police station. You succeeded in letting me separate from her. Up to now, I don't know where she is."

"Do you want to know why I took her away? Because I wanted to take her for treatment. Oh, by the way, don't you know? She was pregnant and she had your child..."

Albert punched Aaron in the face.

"What are you talking about? You are the one who got a fucking cancer. Get out of here!"

Aaron laughed wildly. "Three years! You've lived in peace for three years and dreamed that she would go back. But the truth is she may have died in some corner, haha...Do you like my revenge? "
