Chapter 401 gambling game, do you dare to cheat

The yacht on the sea sped along. There was no moon tonight, and the stars in the sky were scarce. Occasionally, one or two would jump out, so the sea was pitch black and nothing could be seen.

Dongfang Mo stood on the deck and looked at the Pitch Black Sea. In his mind, he was thinking of two billion. This was the astronomical fee that Nangong Xun had offered for the annulment of the marriage.

Last year, not long after Xi Muru married him, Nangong Xun came looking for him. That time, he had already given the Xi family two hundred million, but Xi Yuancheng took the two hundred million, but in the end, nothing was done.

Ahao walked over, but he did not say anything. He just looked at him and asked if he had checked.

Ahao nodded. He said affirmatively, "Uncle Liu just called. He said that Dongfang Yingwu seemed to have made an unusual call yesterday because the phone number over there is actually an internet call from Singapore, and it's from maritime affairs."

"understood," Dongfang Mo snorted. It seemed that the collapse of the two companies did not teach them a lesson. Dongfang Yingwu was clearly not collecting the money back, and he deliberately put Dongfang Group's working capital into a passive position. Then, at this critical moment, he instigated Nangong Xun to come to his door and actually asked for two billion.

Nangong Xun was indeed not an ordinary ruthless character. He caught two of his women at once. One was pregnant with his child, and the other was the daughter of Binhai City's Mayor Kuang, who was also his fiancée.

He could not ignore either of these two women, and Nangong Xun saw this point, so he wanted to take this opportunity to empty Dongfang Group.

Nangong Xun, the man who was stuck in traffic with Dongfang Yu 11 years ago, the man who forced Dongfang Yu to flip over the cliff with his car and fall into the sea, that..

Six years ago, he had tried to force him to the bottom of the cliff, but his luck was always better. He fell off the cliff and was fine. He even climbed for a few days and nights to climb out.

He and Nangong Xun were good friends when they were young. After all, at that time, the Dongfang family and the Qin family had a good relationship. However, due to the competition between the two families, their relationship gradually became estranged. After that traffic jam 11 years ago, the Dongfang family and the Qin family became enemies. After Dongfang Yu's accident, the Dongfang family and the Qin family became enemies.

The Qin family had already been annexed by the Dongfang family five years ago. However, he did not expect that Qin Xun's mother, Nangong Hui, would bring Qin Xun back to her family and change his surname to Nangong. The former Qin Xun and the current Nangong Xun.. Would actually become powerful again.

The current Dongfang Group and Nangong Bao still appeared friendly on the surface. In the past, he did not know that Nangong Xun in Singapore was the former Qin Xun because Nangong Xun himself had never been to the Dongfang Group before.

Now, it was precisely because Xi Muru was once engaged to Nangong Xun that Dongfang Corporation and Nangong Xun had completely broken off business relations. Nangong Xun even owed him a huge sum of money and did not give it to him.

This damn Nangong Xun, the woman who kidnapped him actually had the face to ask him for money. Then, he would go and do a proper calculation for him today. He would calculate how much money he still owed Dongfang Corporation and make him cough up both principal and interest today.

Nangong Xun had originally planned to look for him after the internal strife in the Dongfang Corporation was settled. He didn't expect that he would come to look for him on his own accord. In that case, he would make him eat meat buns and beat up dogs for good today.

Chapter 402 gambling, do you dare to cheat

On the other side, Xi Muru and Nangong Xun had already spun the wheel many times. However, she was still wearing the little cutie and Panties, the three-point swimsuit that covered the entire beach.

Actually, Mu Ru had already learned a little bit of experience and knew the importance of strength to the wheel. However, a little bit of experience was nothing compared to Nangong Xun's experience.

Fortunately, after spinning the wheel a few times, her and Dongfang Mo's current situation was on par. Right now, she was working hard to win back her clothes and shoes, and then slowly win Nangong Xun's chips.

Because Mu Ru was wearing the three-point style and standing in front of a circle of grown men, her face was red with embarrassment. She kept telling herself in her heart to pretend that she was doing a swimsuit performance, while Nangong Xun and these men in black treated them as judges.

Nangong Xun stared at Xi Muru's face that was so embarrassed that it was like a freshly boiled duck egg peeling its shell and rolling in the powder. Actually, Xi Muru's figure was not considered good. At least for now, snowy peak was not considered plump in the eyes of the little cutie, and her waist was not considered slim. However, her long and slender legs were fair and tender. It made people's imaginations run wild, and they had the urge to remove that piece of shame cloth.

Gambling was not only a skill, but it was also a psychological tactic. When you were at a disadvantage, you could not panic. You had to be steady, or else you would lose completely.

Mu Ru's psychological quality had always been very good. This was all because of the environment she had been in since she was young and the oppression that Xi Muxue had given her. She had been at a disadvantage for a long time, and she had already gotten used to how to survive under a disadvantage.

Therefore, she could be steady when she won and steady when she lost. Thus, she repeated it over and over again. When she won or lost, she still managed to maintain her three-point dress standard.

Actually, she was very tired at this time. She had left the house this morning. Even though she did not have time to look, she knew that it should be night. As a pregnant woman, not only did she not eat anything, she did not even have a break. She had been in a state of fear and worry.

“Xi Muru, this time, it’s your turn to turn the disc again,” Nangong Xun looked at Xi Muru, whose face was already showing signs of fatigue. He reminded her lightly, but there was a smile in his eyes.

Xi Muru, the woman who had saved him six years ago, the woman who had given him a second life, the woman whom he had once thought would be his wife, now..

At this moment, she stood there, her tired face still calm. Even though she was only wearing a cute and concealer, there was not the slightest hint of panic on her face.

He did not misjudge her back then. Xi Muru was different from the rest. Her stubborn little face, her fearless expression, and last year’s act of crashing into the wall on the cruise ship left a deep impression on him.

This woman originally belonged to him. God allowed him to meet her before Dongfang Mo, but why... .. Why did he have to make sure that he could not have her ? ?

He could not let her continue winning. Otherwise, he really would not be able to have her. This woman’s ability to comprehend was too expensive. She actually understood the strength of her hands and the speed of the spinning wheel.

He watched her index finger and thumb gently pull on the spinning wheel. He immediately understood that this time, Xi Muru won again because her strength was just right.

Chapter 403 gambling: Do you dare to cheat

That was indeed the case. When the round plate slowly came to a stop, the needle had already stably stuck to his name and stopped. It was safe and did not shake at all.

Mu Ru did not wait for Nangong Xun to make a sound and immediately went to the SOFA to put on her clothes. In fact, her heart was also anxious because Nangong Xun was about to pull the round plate. In that case, once Nangong Xun won, she would have to take off her clothes again.

Nangong Xun also seemed to be somewhat tired of this stalemate. He said to Mu Ru, “how about this? Let’s change to another game. Otherwise, the two of us will probably be stuck at this stage for three days and three nights. Then, the bet between us will probably never stop. I don’t really care. The key is you. If the time is prolonged, will your body be able to hold on? ”

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard this. In fact, her body was already extremely exhausted. The long period of hunger had already exhausted her physical strength. She also knew that if she persisted for another half an hour or an hour.. She reckoned that she wouldn’t be able to contend against Nangong Xun.

“What do you want to bet?” Mu Ru put on her clothes and sat down on the SOFA. It was very tiring for a pregnant woman to stand for a long time. Since she was talking now, she couldn’t be bothered to care about how Nangong Xun looked at her.

“Rock, paper, scissors, do you know how to play?” Nangong Xun looked at mu ru with a smile as if he was casually asking.

“I know how to play this game,” Mu ru answered truthfully. This was because there were probably not many people in this world who didn’t know how to play this kind of game that even children knew how to play.

“Then we’ll play rock, paper, scissors.” Nangong Xun immediately became interested, so he sat down on the Sofa on the other side He looked at mu ru and said, “then let’s start now. We’ll shout rock, paper, scissors together. When we’re done, we’ll stretch out our hands. You don’t need me to tell you whether we win or lose, right?”

Mu Ru nodded and then very naturally put her hands behind her back. Actually, she knew that this was a little, so she also knew how to play this game. It was just that she didn’t play much when she was young because she had been working for mother Wang since she was young.

“Rock, paper, scissors,” the two of them shouted together, and then they stretched out their hands together. Mu Ru originally wanted to pull out the cloth, but in her panic, she forgot to spread her fingers, so she became a rock.

Nangong Xun, on the other hand, was a scissors because he could tell from Xi Muru’s expression that she would pull out the cloth. If she pulled out the scissors, she would definitely win. However, Xi Muru, who was playing the cards uneasily, threw a rock at him and directly smashed his scissors.

Nangong Xun looked at his two slender fingers and didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. It was already impossible for him to retract his fingers. The black-shirted man beside him had a straight face. Looking at Nangong Xun’s defeated look, he wanted to laugh, but no one dared to laugh He could only suppress the joy in his heart.

Mu Ru didn’t wait for Nangong Xun’s instructions. She quickly picked up the Pants beside the SOFA and put them on. As she put on the pants, she secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Now, she only had two shoes left. Once she put on the shoes, she would win back everything she had lost Then, she would slowly win Nangong Xun’s two billion.

Unfortunately, Mu Ru was too nave. After she won this round, she lost two sentences in a row. Soon, she took off all her clothes and pants.

“Rock, paper, SCISSORS!” As Nangong Xun’s voice sounded, Mu Ru, who was wearing a three-point style, quickly stretched out her hand. This time, she took out a piece of cloth, but it was mercilessly cut by Nangong Xun’s scissors.

Chapter 404 gambling: Do you dare to cheat

There was no doubt that she had lost because the stone, scissors, and cloth were different from the turntable. This was very difficult to grasp. Many times, one had to judge what he would do based on his expression. However, Nangong Xun's expression had always been the same, so mu ru couldn't guess it at all.

Mu Ru coldly looked at Nangong Xun's two slender fingers. She really wanted to bend his two fingers back, because as long as he bent his fingers back, she would win.

Unfortunately, Nangong Xun's two fingers were waving in front of her eyes arrogantly. Rather than saying that they were two fingers, it was more appropriate to say that they were two devils with evil intentions.

A few minutes ago, she was still fantasizing about putting her shoes back on and winning Nangong Xun's chips. But now, she finally understood that the distance between fantasy and reality was not just a little bit.

The fantasy was beautiful, but reality was cruel. It was so cruel that people could not even cry!

"Xi Muru, please! Pay The chips that you should pay." Nangong Xun had a good temper. He made a very gentlemanly gesture of inviting her. His eyes were filled with a smile as he looked at her calmly.

Mu Ru had been wearing the three-point pose in front of him for a long time. It made his heart itch. A hidden part of his body had long reacted, but he had been enduring it and maintained his gentlemanly demeanor.

Even though he was filled with anticipation and his heart itched, he restrained his impulse. Under such circumstances, he had to make Xi Muru admit her defeat wholeheartedly. He had to make her undress him personally, so that she wouldn't say that he forced her in the future.

Thinking about how she would lie down under him later and how he would be able to enjoy her later, thinking about how he could finally be married to her, a real husband and wife, he was extremely happy.

He had to ask her, was it his reality that made her feel comfortable or Dongfang Mo's simulator that made her feel comfortable?

He believed that he could conquer her, because he had first-class sex skills. He could completely make women want to die, and of course, he could also make women fall in love with his sex skills.

Mu Ru was so nervous that she was sweating. Her hands were clenched into fists. She did not have the courage to take off any of the things on her body, whether it was the little cutie or the cloths. If she took off these two things, she might as well just die.

However, the current situation was that she had indeed lost. According to the rules of gambling, if she lost, she had to pay the chips. And her chips, other than the Yifan on her body, were also the body parts.

At this moment, since she did not have the courage to get rid of the pitiful cloth on her body, the only thing she could do was to choose to lose the parts on her body. Other than that, there was no other way.

Looking around, the men in black all stood expressionlessly like robots. Kuang Yingying stood at the side, completely a passerby who was watching the show. There was not a hint of sympathy on her face, let alone that she would help her. Of course.. She could not help either.

Helpless. At this moment, the gray color was suffocating. It was countless times more suffocating than the last time when she was locked in a small dark room by Leng Leiting.

That time, she still had her cell phone with her. That time, she could still think of Zheng Yifan, call Zheng Yifan, and... ..

Now, even if she had a cell phone with her, she did not know who to call.

Because the person who could save her was no longer there. She did not know which country Dongfang Mo had thrown her to.

Chapter 405 gambling game, do you dare to cheat

Mu Ru's gaze scrutinized her body. She closed her eyes slightly before slowly opening them again. She looked at Nangong Xun and asked indifferently, "excuse me, does a tooth count as a chip?"

Nangong Xun was slightly stunned when he heard her question because he had never thought about Xi Muru's question. He was certain that she had chosen to take off the cute and concealer on her body.

Everyone's spare parts, even the smallest ones, were made from the flesh of a woman. Compared to the concealer on their body, they were many times more expensive. Who would be willing to waste their spare parts just to keep the concealer?

However, Xi Muru seemed to think highly of the two cloths on her body. She actually asked such a question. It was obvious that she wanted to lose her spare parts to choose a place where she could protect her little bit of privacy.

Xi Muru was an extraordinary woman after all. It seemed that he would not be able to enjoy her all at once. It seemed that he had to use this opportunity to train his patience.

Hence, he thought about it and said, "MMM, let's do it. A tooth is a gamble. However, are you sure you can pull out your own tooth? I won't get anyone to help you."

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard this. She had heard people say that the only thing a person could not pull out was their tooth. No one could endure the pain of pulling out their tooth, which was why the dental business was so good. Therefore, it was very difficult to pull out a tooth even if there was a long queue.

Nangong Xun did not get anyone to help her. He only got someone to hand her a pair of pliers. It was obvious that he wanted her to pull out her own tooth. However, there was not even a mirror here. She could not see her own tooth at all. She could only touch the teeth in her mouth with her hands.

If it was for the sake of looking good, of course, she would have to pull out the teeth inside, but it wasn't easy to pull out the teeth inside, so she could only pull out the front teeth. Unfortunately, her front teeth weren't big, so when the steel pliers were handed over, they could instantly clamp down on two front teeth.

"Can you give me a smaller pair of steel pliers?" Mu Ru placed the steel pliers on the coffee table and looked at Nangong Xun.

Nangong Xun shrugged his shoulders. He had an expression of five years. "I'm sorry, Xi Muru. I didn't expect to meet you before I left, and I didn't expect to gamble with you, so I didn't prepare everything. I only have this pair of steel pliers here, and it's an electrician's tool."

Mu Ru was a little helpless. If she wanted to pull out her front teeth, she would have to pull out two of them at once. It was not worth it. In the end, she stared at her nails and could not help but ask, "that nail counts as a bargaining chip, right?"

Nangong Xun was rendered speechless by her. He had come up with this gamble on the spur of the moment. At the beginning, he had only intended to play with her. Thinking that she had lost all her clothes, she would belong to him.

But who would have thought that Xi Muru would never stop. Now that she did not take off the little fabric on her body, she wanted to really torture the parts on her body, which made him extremely tired.

"Let's see, let's see." Nangong Xun waved his hand in annoyance, then he could not help but urge her, "Xi Muru, can you hurry up? If you delay time like this, I'll bet with you that I'll die of loss."

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard his words, then she could not help but retort, "what loss do you have? You're going to wait for Dongfang Mo Anyway, aren't you? If you don't bet with me, wouldn't you have to wait for him too? Could it be that you're planning to release US directly?"

Chapter 406 gambling game, do you dare to cheat

Nangong Xun was stunned when he heard Mu Ru's words. Damn it, this Xi Muru was getting more and more courageous. She was really getting less and less afraid of him. It seemed like if he didn't come up with some powerful moves.. Xi Muru, this woman, would probably have to wait until the next morning before she would lie down under him.

Moreover, that Bastard Dongfang Mo probably wouldn't need to arrive the next morning. He reckoned that there was still a big battle between him and Dongfang Mo, so he didn't have that much time to waste with Xi Muru.

Hence, he said expressionlessly, "let's be clear first. If it's toenails, then only five can be counted as a chip. If it's toenails, then one can count as a chip. It's up to you."

He originally wanted to say five toes count as a chip and one finger count as a chip, but Xi Muru didn't ask for a finger. The other party asked for a fingernail, and he had already said it was up to him.

Forget it. Xi Muru's current actions were nothing more than death acupuncture. If she wanted to struggle, then let him struggle. He wanted to see how much courage she had and how many fingernails she could pull out?

Moreover, a woman without fingernails would not affect much. Moreover, he wanted to see what Dongfang Mo's expression would be like if he came and saw her bloody hands?

It was said that Dongfang Mo had undergone plastic surgery and returned to his original appearance. He wanted to see if the Dongfang Mo after plastic surgery was the same as the Dongfang Mo before the car accident?

Mu Ru grabbed the wire cutters again. First, she checked her toenails, then she looked at her fingernails. In fact, toenails were easier to pull out than fingernails. Moreover, pulling out the toenails did not affect the appearance. This was because no one could see with the shoes on.

However, five toenails counted once. This was really unacceptable. Therefore, she ultimately chose to pull out her fingernails. After all, pulling out five toenails would cause pain five times, while pulling out one fingernail would only cause pain once. A fool would choose pain once instead of five times.

Her right hand held the wire cutters tightly as she looked at the five fingers on her left hand. As she did not have to do anything recently, a maid was responsible for taking care of her. Therefore, her fingernails were still a little long, and the wire cutters could still hold them.

Pulling out the nails to protect the fingers was not a bad idea. Besides looking good, the actual effect of the nails did not seem to be very big.

Slowly, she brought the steel pliers to the fingernails on her left little finger, but her right hand could not exert any strength. In the past, Cheng Feier had told her that she had read a sentence in a magazine: "The only thing that makes people unable to extricate themselves from love is their teeth!"

But now, she fully experienced that the sentence in the magazine was actually wrong. That person probably placed too much importance on love, but in fact, the only things that could not extricate themselves were their teeth and nails!

Everyone's eyes were now focused on the steel pliers in Mu Ru's hand. Kuang Yingying stood beside Mu Ru. At this moment, her entire body could not help but tremble. She covered her mouth with her hand, worried that she would scream out of fear.

At this moment, she felt that Xi Muru was really too stupid. There were clearly two pieces of cloth on her body. Why didn't she take them off? If she took off the cloth, she would just give it to Nangong Xun last time. It would not lose a piece of flesh. Why must she foolishly pull out her nails?

Mu Ru finally used the steel pliers to clamp her nails. However, the nails on her pinky finger were not long, and the mouth of the steel pliers was a little big. The nail pliers alone were not there, so she had no choice but to clamp her nails with a little bit of meat. Then, she closed her eyes and used force.

Chapter 407 gambling game, do you dare to cheat

Unfortunately, Xi Muru was very determined, but the pregnant woman who was exhausted to the limit had very little strength. This pull did not completely pull out her nails, only lifting half of her nails.

Pain spread from her fingers to her heart, then from her heart to her entire body and limbs. Beads of sweat dripped from her forehead, soaking her hair, but she did not allow herself to cry.

Xi Muru's eyes widened as she stared at her half-lifted fingernail. A hot liquid swirled in her eyes. She gritted her teeth and endured it, trying hard not to let the liquid roll out of her eyes.

The blood on her pinky finger dripped down one drop at a time. It was like the peach blossoms in spring falling in the wind and rain. It was so stunning and so desolate. The lifted fingernail that was dyed red with blood suddenly had a petal that was on the verge of collapsing. It was so beautiful that it was shocking... ..

Mu Ru stared at her finger. She stared at the finger that was bleeding non-stop. She looked at the fingernails that were raised and stood tall. However, she no longer had the courage to send the steel wire pliers up to pull it out a second time.

Nangong Xun's heart could not help but tremble slightly. He looked at the bloody finger and the fresh blood that kept dripping down. He suddenly felt that Xi Muru's finger was incomparably beautiful.

The people in this world were very strange. Some people would feel dizzy when they saw fresh blood. It was commonly known as blood sickness. For example, Xi Muru.

And some people were born to like fresh blood and liked bloody scenes. They felt that fresh blood was the most beautiful color, such as Nangong Xun.

Nangong Xun saw that mu ru was sitting there and her body was trembling all the time, so he walked over to her in two steps and squatted down on her sofa. Looking at the bloody finger, he couldn't help but touch the raised fingernail. He pressed down with a little force.

"Ah..." Mu ru screamed in pain. With this scream, the hot liquid in her eyes finally couldn't help but burst out ...

"Xi Muru, I just said that a nail counts as a chip, not half a nail." Nangong Xun stood up. His voice was very light, but it was extremely heavy in Mu Ru's ears.

A nail counts as a chip, and half doesn't count. However, her hand really didn't have the slightest strength to pick up the steel wire pliers.

What should she do? Could it be that this half-removed nail doesn't count? She closed her eyes slightly and thought for a moment. Then, she opened her eyes and looked straight at Nangong Xun. "A nail counts as a chip, so half of my nail counts as half a chip, right?"

This Nangong Xun was stunned. He was really speechless at her. He thought for a moment and said, "Alright then, count it as half of a chip. For the remaining half, I'll give you a discount. As long as you kiss me, it counts as making up for this time. Isn't that fair?"

A kiss counts as half of a chip. A chip counts as 100 million. Half of a chip counts as 50 million. Was this considered the most expensive kiss in the world?

Mu Ru was completely stunned. Of course, Kuang Yingying and the men in black who were not far away were also stunned.

No one had expected Nangong Xun to be so generous. He could actually make Xi Muru use a kiss to pay for half of the chips. Nangong Xun was obviously taking pity on Xi Muru.

Mu Ru thought her ears had misheard, so she did not react for a while. She just stood there foolishly, staring at her finger that was constantly dripping blood.

Nangong Xun saw that Xi Muru did not react. He asked a little impatiently, "Xi Muru, have you thought about it? Do you want to continue pulling out half of your fingernails or give me a kiss? Or, if your fingernails are pulled out in vain, why don't you just take off the cover?"

Chapter 408 the thousand-year-old Cheat 1

Mu Ru's heart had never felt so bad before. She had used up all her strength and courage to pull out her fingernails just now. Now, she really could not pick up the steel wire pliers to pull out half of her fingernails.

The codpiece on her body was her bottom line. Everyone had a bottom line. Although she had lived a very humble life since she was young, she still had her own bottom line.

Therefore, the codpiece on her body could not be taken off, nor would she take it off. There was no doubt about it!

One Kiss. Alright, one kiss then. It seemed that this was more or less acceptable.

Because there were many bloodstains on the ground and her fingers were still dripping with blood, she had used too much strength when she had just pulled out her fingernails. The sweat and tears mixed together and had long soaked through her hair.

She gritted her teeth and stood up. Alright, it was just one kiss. She thought that she was unlucky today and had been bitten by a dog. Moreover, if she was bitten by this dog, at least she would not get rabies.

She used her hand to support the Armrest of the SOFA and hesitated for a moment. Then, she walked towards Nangong Xun. He was standing there, and she only needed to stand in front of him, put her lips together, and stamp on his lips.

What a worthwhile deal, but it didn't seem that difficult. She couldn't help but muster up her courage. Then, she walked step by step to Nangong Xun's side and looked at his heartless thin lips. She stood on tiptoe slightly and pressed her pink lips against his.

"Wait a moment." Nangong Xun turned his head to the side and immediately said something, causing Mu Ru's lips that were originally going to press against his lips to miss.

At this moment, Nangong Xun's originally pitch-black eyes were dyed with a dark red color. He didn't conceal his burning desire at all, and it was revealed in Mu Ru's line of sight.

Mu Ru's body froze instinctively. She stood rooted to the spot and looked at Nangong Xun. She instantly did not understand what he meant. He said that a kiss was worth half the chips. Now that she came to kiss him and he avoided her, could it be that he regretted it?

“No!” Xi Muru blurted out almost reflexively. Then, her body could not help but take a few steps back. The pain in her fingers was instantly drowned by the humiliation in her heart. She could not feel it at all.

Chapter 409: A thousand-year-old Cheat 2

Although she was an extremely indifferent person with an extremely low status, it didn't mean that she was a very casual person, especially when it came to such matters.

At this moment, faced with Nangong Xun's insulting request, she didn't need to think too much before firmly and resolutely rejecting it.

No, absolutely not. She simply couldn't do the kissing method that Nangong Xun proposed, let alone in public or in private. Even if it was just the two of them, she couldn't do it.

“No?” Nangong Xun frowned “Xi Muru, don't always challenge my patience. I admit that I've always treated you as my fiancée and tolerated you, but that doesn't mean that I'm really going to be obedient to you. Since you promised to give me a kiss, and you didn't ask me not to kiss anywhere, you can't blame me. You can only blame yourself for being too simple-minded. Don't tell me that only kissing with your mouth is kissing?”

Mu Ru's body started to tremble instinctively. She could not help but step back. She raised her eyes and subconsciously looked towards Nangong Xun. However, in his pitch-black eyes, she saw a crazed desire that was about to burst into flames. The fire of desire was wild and intense. It was as if it wanted to drag her into it and burn her to death.

Time passed so slowly. Even now, Dongfang Mo still had not arrived. Would this night be especially long. Especially dark?

Her body and mind were in extreme pain. The expression on her face could no longer maintain that calmness. At this moment, she was already in pieces. Even her soul seemed to have drifted away in Sichuan.

Perhaps, her cultivation was not enough?

Mu Ru closed her eyes slightly for a few seconds and shook her head in pain. She opened her eyes again and finally reached out her right hand to grab the steel wire pliers on the coffee table. “I'd better insist on pulling out this fingernail of mine.”

“But, how can I bear to do that?” Nangong Xun quickly snatched the steel wire pliers on the coffee table and casually threw them away. The ambiguous fire in his eyes was almost bursting out of his eyes. He stretched out his long hand and grabbed mu Ru's wrist, pulling it with force. Mu Ru's entire body couldn't hold on at all. Then, she directly fell into Nangong Xun's embrace.

“It smells so good.” Nangong Xun picked up mu Ru's half-removed pinky finger and put it into his mouth without hesitation. He sucked it hard, and Mu ru immediately rushed to that painful place with traces of itchiness.

“Let go of me!” Mu Ru couldn’t help but growl. She used her other hand to push Nangong Xun’s head away. She struggled hard, trying to break out of Nangong Xun’s embrace.

Nangong Xun’s mouth held mu Ru’s fingernail that had been pulled out. Because he was sucking on it, blood that had been diluted by his saliva seeped out from the corner of his mouth. It dripped faintly from the corner of his mouth, and there was a different kind of poignant beauty to it.

Mu Ru only felt waves of heart-wrenching pain piercing through her fingers. Through the nerve endings, it went straight to the bottom of her heart. Her heart turned from pain to coldness... ..

There had never been any savior in this world. Her only savior had been mercilessly driven away by that devil, Dongfang Mo, and could no longer rush to her side.

At this moment, she was the only one who could save her!

When she thought of this, she raised her head and looked at Nangong Xun who was greedily sucking on her finger. Without thinking, she immediately moved her head forward, opened her mouth and bit on Nangong Xun’s ear. ...

Chapter 410, the thousand-year-old cheater

“Ah!” Nangong Xun cried out in pain and quickly let go of Mu Ru’s finger. His hand almost instantly touched his ear. When he took it off, his hand was already covered in blood.

Everyone was shocked, especially the men in black. They stared at Nangong Xun with wide eyes and wanted to come forward, but because Nangong Xun didn’t say anything, they could only stand there.

Kuang Yingying was also shocked by Xi Muru’s current actions. She looked at her bleeding finger and Nangong Xun’s bleeding ear. For a moment, she had mixed feelings. She didn’t know who these two were.

“Hehehe, so my fiancée is still a kitten with sharp claws.” Nangong Xun could not help but laugh evilly. When he saw the man in black beside him take a band-aid, he immediately moved his ear closer for help.

“I’ll still follow the rules we talked about at the beginning. I’ll use the spare parts as a bargaining chip.” Mu Ru wiped the corner of her mouth with the back of her hand. She looked at Nangong Xun and said plainly, “I still insist on pulling out this nail of mine.”

“hehehe.” When Nangong Xun heard Mu Ru’s words, he instantly felt as if he had heard a joke. He pulled up his pants and put them on. He walked closer to Mu Ru and said, “Xi Muru, I set up this bet and I’m the one who decides the rules. Now, pulling out a fingernail doesn’t count as a bargaining chip anymore. It only counts once if you cut off a hand. Are you willing to do that?”

“You... How can you do this?” Mu Ru was so shocked that she took two steps back. Her heart started to panic, but she still tried her best to maintain her calm expression. She looked at Nangong Xun and said, “you’re a man of seven feet. How can you not keep your word?”

“I don’t keep my word?” Nangong Xun frowned. It was obvious that he was unhappy because of Xi Muru’s words His voice instantly turned cold. “I think it’s because I keep my word too much, right? Haven’t I been keeping our engagement from six years ago? The one who really doesn’t keep his word is you who broke the engagement. ”

“then... what do you want?” Mu Ru’s heart tightened when she heard his words. The pinky that had half of her fingernail pulled out seemed to hurt even more ...

“since you’re not willing to obediently go into the room to fulfill your marital duties with me, then... ” Nangong Xun’s expression darkened as he looked at the black-clothed man beside him He indifferently instructed, “Go and use that Angelic charm on her. I want her to obediently climb onto my bed and obediently fulfill the duties and responsibilities that a wife should have towards her husband. ”

“boss, something bad has happened. ” A black-clothed man hurriedly ran in from outside the door. His voice was slightly hurried as he reported, “Dongfang Mo has arrived and is currently disembarking. ”

Nangong Xun instinctively furrowed his brows. He did not expect Dongfang Mo to arrive so quickly. He was at least four hours earlier than he had expected and had actually disturbed his mood.

“then invite him in. ” Nangong Xun thought for a moment before making a decision. Then, he looked at the man in black beside him and asked, “is everything ready? ”

“It has been prepared for a long time, ” the man in black replied in unison.

When Nangong Xun heard this, the corners of his mouth curled into an imperceptible smile. Dongfang Mo, just because you came quickly does not mean that you have won. This time, your property, your woman, your life —

I WON’T LET ANYTHING GO!

Don’t blame me, don’t blame me. who asked us to be enemies Who asked you to have so many petty people by your side Who asked you to make the Dongfang Group so big and powerful Who asked everyone to want a piece of it?
