

Night Stand 100

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 100

"I have something to attend to and won't come to the company until tomorrow afternoon," Wayne said on the phone.

Then he hung up the phone, stepped on the gas, and drove onto the highway.

It was already evening. He drove at a fast speed all the way and arrived at the hospital two hours later.

As soon as he arrived at the ward that Anna was in, he heard Anna's scream from inside. "What are you doing? Let go of me!" Without thinking, Wayne pushed the door open and rushed in.

On the bed, a man with gauze wrapped around his head put his arms around Anna's waist.

After Anna struggled and broke free, he got out of bed and grabbed Anna's arm again.

Seeing this, Wayne strode over at once, grabbed the man's collar from behind with one hand, and grabbed the man's wrist with the other hand. Then he had the man's hands tied behind his back. The next moment, the man screamed in pain.

"Hey, let go of him. He's just been rescued and woken up. Don't do that," Anna said anxiously. "Let go of him first."

Wayne frowned and let go of the injured man with a snort. Then he said, "Such a rogue should have been killed in the accident."

Hearing this, the injured man shivered with fear, crawled on the bed in a hurry, and wrapped himself tightly with the quilt, only revealing his eyes.

The ward finally became quiet and Anna breathed a sigh of relief. Then she looked at Wayne and asked in confusion, "Why are you doing here?"

"The staff of my company hit others while driving. I'm here to help deal with this matter in case someone deliberately takes advantage of it and starts a rumor to ruin the reputation of the company," Wayne answered seriously and calmly.

Actually, it was the public relations department who should be responsible for it and he didn't need to come here at all. But Anna, who had just worked in Carousel Group for a few months, didn't know about it.

"The police have made a thorough investigation on this matter. Fortunately, I installed a dash cam in my car. The video showed that he suddenly went to the middle of the road while I was driving. At that time, I was operating on the navigation system and didn't notice him. And it was late when I stepped on the brake to stop the car. I'm also partly to blame for the car accident. Sorry," Anna explained with a guilty look.
