

Night Stand 14

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 14

When Wayne arrived at the hospital, Anna was still unconscious. His precious Matthew was still in his pajamas and was drawing next to the bed.

Wayne was stunned by what he saw and called out, "Matthew!" Matthew turned around, saw Wayne, and quickly raised his drawing for Wayne to see Matthew could not speak and his vocabulary was limited. So he would draw if what he wanted to express was too complicated.

The first picture was of a lady feeding a boy The boy smiled happily

The second picture was a lady leading a boy out the door. Next to their heads was a cloud-like bubble with a playground inside.

The last picture was a golden chandelier that crashed. The lady protected the boy and her hand was crushed. There was blood everywhere.

"Okay.."

He pointed at Anna and then at the woman in his drawing, telling Wayne that Anna to protect Matthew at the risk of her life? Wayne wondered with amazement. He felt guilty when he recalled the scenes in which standing behind Wayne, Matthew's face turned pale immediately. He then released and thought that tenderly. "Daddy's sorry for what happened today. I guarantee that I won't go back on my words from now on, reluctant and out to the butler, "It's late. Take Matthew home. He could not understand why and asked, "Matthew, what's wrong?" "Let me try. Perhaps he was shocked by what happened today." Ada said. She squatted and gently patted Matthew's head, "Matthew, shall

Ada. He quickly ran behind Wayne and