

Night Stand 17

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 17

“Mommy, I’m going out!” Tammy yelled and walked out naturally. Anna asked drowsily, “Where are you going?” “To buy some ice cream.” Anna was barely awake, “Be careful, get me one.”

Tammy regularly bought the groceries on her own and Anna was not worried that she went out.

Tammy started to run excitedly towards the café. A stretched Bentley stopped at the café and an old man got out with an assistant. “Sir, this way!”

The old man looked around and frowned, “I even need to get a date for my grandson at this age. Why can’t we get someone to impersonate him? Once we find the right girl then we’ll discuss the marriage details.”

“That’s impossible. So many people in Southside City recognize Wayne. No one would believe it when we put him on the website. For those who believed, they’d think that we’re a cheat
