

Night Stand 18

Chapter 18

The old man described his requirements.

“So you’d like someone who is pretty and has great personality and abilities. Most importantly someone who can take care of others, right?” Tammy summarized.

“Based on what you said, I feel that my mother fulfills all your requirements. I need to find a husband for my mommy while you want to find a wife for your son. We share the same objectives. You can see that I’m a good girl and how well my mother had raised me.” Tammy felt guilty when she said that Anna was good at taking care of her.

Although her mother was very capable at work, she actually needed others to help her through the day

Old master Wright was increasingly impressed by this little girl and wondered how her mother could raise such a confident child.
