

Night Stand 22

Chapter 22

After sending Anna and Tammy home, the car was caught in a traffic jam, Matthew would usually become very frustrated when he was stuck in traffic. But today he quietly drew on his notepad.

Wayne was still pondering in disbelief at what happened at the restaurant.

He could understand Matthew's fondness for Anna because Anna saved him. But what about her daughter? Although Tammy was very likable, he had never seen Matthew accepting another child that easily.

Wayne snapped back to his senses when Matthew excitedly tugged his sleeve. Wayne looked at what Matthew drew.

On the notepad was a drawing of a man and a woman each holding onto a boy and a girl. The sky was blue and the grass was green with a golden sun. It looked picture perfect.

Wayne looked at the picture for a while before asking, "Matthew, do you want a mommy?"

Matthew frantically nodded and his face turned red as he struggled to say the word, "Mommy!"

Wayne was shocked with his eyes and mouth wide open. He then smiled radiantly and exclaimed, "Matthew, you spoke!"

He had not heard Matthew speak a word since that high fever three years ago!"

This was the first time in three years he heard Matthew's lovely voice! Matthew held onto the book tightly and waited for Wayne's answer.

Matthew was envious after seeing Anna have a child to satisfy his grandfather, he was young and did not consider the consequences thoroughly. Now that he loved his son so complete family. He patted Matthew's

Matthew was overjoyed.

her friend, Peace overseas. They were very close and Peace became Tammy's godmother. The apartment they stayed in belonged to as a teacher at a private kindergarten. It's opposite a General to get in?" Anna asked. Peace replied, "Yes, I'll send you the registration form and you can have a look." "Okay." It was late when Peace sent her

+25 Points

Chapter 22 Matthew, You

the private kindergarten still required approval from the local authorities! Could all the troubled by this and could not sleep

went to work and was struggling to stay awake

what brings you here?" It was the plan for the hotel anniversary celebrations," "Anniversary celebrations?" Anna asked in surprise, "Am I in charge of this?"

all the middle and senior management. It is voluntary for the regular staff but mandatory for the management. This is also our tradition. Mr. Wright was afraid that you something in two months when her bet with Wayne had not