

Night Stand 23

Chapter 23

"Have you asked her about the anniversary plan?" Wayne asked about the thing he ordered this morning.

Gabe nodded, "Yes, Miss Gabriel said that she would soon finish it. She really didn't know that we have this tradition. Luckily, I reminded her. But she has been pretty busy these days. I don't think she has much time for it."

"What is she busy about?"

"It seems that she is looking for a kindergarten for her daughter." Gabe was able to remember everything that he saw, so he told the name of the kindergarten that Anna Gabriel was applying for. "I didn't expect that Anna Gabriel, at such a young age, has already had a child big enough to go to the kindergarten."

Wayne had just become relaxed, but somehow, he started frowning again after hearing Gabe's words and looked gloomy.

At this moment, Matthew suddenly ran to them from behind Gabe and put his drawing board in front of Wayne. It reads,

"I want to go to the kindergarten"

Wayne frowned, "The kindergarten is too crowded for you. You have your teachers at home."

and immediately pushed all the documents off the put it in speaking. If he went to a kindergarten, other small kids would definitely bully him. The last thing he would do was to send him to a totally strange place where he would encounter other accidents before his ASD was picked up all the documents, and Matthew suddenly

PAPA YOU ARE BAD DADYY. MOVING TO

with the CEO of Carousel

a prolonged stalemate, Wayne had to relent, "Let me think about it seem to be satisfied with Wayne's answer, but someone opened the door and Ada stood at the door, smiling, "Did I disturb you? I've brought lunch for you

+25 Points

23 Prepare To