

Night Stand 26

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 26

“Broom-to-be, Jacob Palmer, and Bride-to-be, Lilian Hart sincerely invite Anna Gabriel to join them in celebration of their engagement.”

The italic letters on the cover were particularly conspicuous. There were cartoon images of the two on the inner page. Anna held the corner of the invitation card, with no enthusiasm in her eyes.

On second thought, it was not surprising for them to get engaged. Last time when Anna met Lilian in the elevator, she saw the ring that was invaluable to her on Lilian's finger.

What was surprising was that they dared to send this invitation card to her. Anna leaned back on the sofa and smiled sarcastically. She could still feel a pain in her heart when she thought about that thing five years ago.

If it weren't for Jacob Palmer and Lilian Hart, she wouldn't end up living like this.

It was said that one's life was never complete without falling in love with a douchebag. What was more, if a friendship couldn't be considered as complete without her boyfriend cheating on her with her best friend, Anna thought that her life couldn't be more complete.

At last, she threw the card under the side table and never looked at it again.

If you accidentally step on the dog's poop, will you get closer to it and smell whether it is stinky or not?

The next day, Anna was going to think about the anniversary event plan, but she was woken up by the doorbell on the morning of the weekend.

She opened the door to see a man and a woman. The man was handsome and looked stable, and the woman was pretty and gentle. They both wore a neat suit with a briefcase in one hand.

“Sorry, we don't need insurance service.” Anna sighed impatiently and was about to close the door.

The woman said hurriedly, “Are you Ms. Gabriel? We are the management assistants of Blue Castle Kindergarten.”

Anna opened her eyes wide in astonishment.
