

Night Stand 28

Chapter 28

The driver's words had reminded Ada.

She thought, "Wayne always goes in his own way no matter what other people say. He seemingly obeys his grandfather, but privately he still does what he pleases, which means that all I need to do is to make sure that Wayne doesn't change his mind."

That night, Wayne and Matthew stayed in the mansion.

Wayne thought that grandfather had something to tell him, but he suddenly answered a phone call and waved to the servants to let them clean up a room for Wayne and Matthew.

Then he locked himself in the study.

"Has grandpa been busy recently?" Wayne looked at the butler suspiciously.

The butler answered calmly and unhurriedly, "Mr. Wright has been communicating a lot with his friend. I don't know much about the details. Sir, you can go back to your room first. Mr. Wright will come outside after he finishes the call."

However, grandfather didn't hang up the phone until midnight. Wayne read a whole book for Matthew while waiting for grandfather. Then Matthew fell asleep, and he kept yawning, realizing that it had already been eleven o'clock. He didn't wait anymore and went to sleep.

Anna got up in the middle of the night to drink water. Standing in the living room, she saw that Tammy's room was still lit up. She frowned and walked over.

Then she heard Tammy's voice in the room, "You have never told me about this person. That's too complicated. If you had told me, I wouldn't let my mommy go. Too complicated."

Anna directly opened the door and asked her in dissatisfaction, "Tammy? What are you doing in the middle of the night? You should've been asleep now."

Tammy hurriedly hung up the phone and turned around in fear. She rolled her eyes and said, "Nothing. I was just talking to my godmother."

On hearing this, Anna's eyes were lit up. She said, "Really? I happen to have something to say to her. Give me the phone and let me talk to her."

Tammy hid the phone behind her, "I've hung up. She said she was
