

Night Stand 34

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 34

Standing on the escalator, Anna turned around and laughed, "I'm very busy. Unlike you, I have a lot of things to do other than thinking about how to inherit the family fortune and marry into a rich family."

Allie was furious, almost digging her nails into her palm.

Six years ago, she almost racked her brains to frame Anna in order to completely ruin her. In Allie's plan, father would loathe Anna, and she wouldn't be able to inherit the fortune of the family. However, Allie didn't expect that she managed to escape and hid for six years.

During this time, Allie had felt free and relaxed without Anna. But now, Anna had come back. What is she planning for?

After returning home from work, Anna was cooking dinner for Tam. Suddenly, her phone rang. She wiped her hands on the apron and took out her phone.

The look on her face froze when she saw the caller ID. It was her father. "Dad."

"I heard you've come back." Her father said in a deep voice. She hadn't contacted him for a long time. He sounded tired.

"Yeah." She answered in a low voice, scraping her fingers on the chopping board.

Obviously, Allie told father after she went back home. She definitely wouldn't say nice things about Anna.

"Move back home now that you have come back. You don't need to live alone." Anna frowned, "No, dad. I've been fine living here."

"Anna, I know you have complaints about me because of your mother. But this is still your family. I'm worried that you will run into danger when living alone. You should..."
