

Night Stand 36

Chapter 36

After getting to the hospital, Tammy dragged Anna all the way to the inpatient department

"Tammy, slow down. You're going to pull off my arm." Anna reluctantly followed her out of the elevator. She couldn't believe what Tammy said until they walked into the ward and saw Matthew lying in bed.

"What happened to Matthew?" There was no one other than Wayne's grandfather in the ward.

He was delighted to see Anna and quickly stood up. He asked deliberately, "I'm sorry, you are?"

Anna hurriedly introduced herself, "I'm Anna Gabriel, the manager of Carousel Hotel. My daughter goes to the same kindergarten with Matthew. Are you Matthew's relative?"

She seems to have a clear mind and is very polite to me. Besides, she somehow looks like Matthew. The old man really came to like Anna. He looked at Tammy, who was making a face, from the corner of his eyes and said amiably, "I'm Matthew's great grandfather."

"You're the president of Carousel Group?" Anna immediately stood straight up, "I'm sorry I didn't recognize you."

"It's alright."

The old man invited her to sit, "Sit down please. Matthew has mentioned you before. He likes you a lot. I know you because you saved Matthew once."

Anna was less nervous seeing that the old man wasn't as mean as he was in the rumor, so she sat on the chair next to him and asked worriedly, "How did Matthew get hurt so badly?"
