

Night Stand 37

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 37

What Ada didn't expect was that Wayne's grandfather criticized Wayne after he told Anna to leave, so eventually Anna and Tammy stayed.

"I think it is more likely that Matthew doesn't need you." The old man said coldly, giving an angry glance at Wayne. He scolded him bluntly in front of Anna, "What Ms. Gabriel said is true. Look at yourself. Can you say that you're a good father? How much wine have you drunk? Where were you when Matthew fell down the stairs? Were you lying in your room? How careless you were!"

Having been blaming himself, Wayne felt more and more guilty as his grandfather criticized him. He didn't insist on Anna's leaving, frowning restlessly, "She can stay if she wants. Grandpa, you can also stay here if you want. OK?"

"Why am I supposed to do staying here?" The old man snorted coldly, "I'm too old to clean up the mess for you. I still want to live for a few more years." Then he called his butler and left.

Before he left, he secretly made an OK hand gesture to Tammy, and Tammy blinked really hard to respond to him. My mom and my future dad can stay together this way!

After Wayne's grandfather left, Anna pulled a chair to the bedside and touched Matthew's forehead to feel his temperature.

Wayne frowned, "He doesn't have a fever. Why do you touch his forehead?"

Anna gave him a withering look and said scornfully, "Kids tend to have a high fever when they are sick, especially when the surgery causes infection. A high fever may lead to pneumonia and other complications, which will be a big trouble. Do you know anything about kids at all?"

Wayne sat on the sofa in embarrassment and said in a low voice, "What do you know? Are you a doctor?"

"My mommy was going to become a doctor." Tammy suddenly walked to Wayne and crawled onto Wayne's thigh with both her hands and feet and sat there casually.

Wayne had nothing against this little girl. In fact, he liked her quite a lot. He lifted her upwards so that she could sit more steadily, but he only took her words as a kid's babble. He asked her in disbelief, "Why didn't she really become a doctor?"
