

Night Stand 40

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 40

She was suddenly gratified and tried to say something nice, "Mr. Wright, you can eat as much as you can. There is enough lasagna. I can cut more slices for you if you want."

Wayne was eating. He unconsciously twisted the end of his brows when he heard her words.

After Anna left at noon, Tammy kept asking Wayne questions, "Uncle Wright, don't you think my mommy is really good? She can make delicious food and take care of others. Matthew also likes my mommy. You can't find another woman like her in the world. Isn't she much better than that big star?"

Wayne could only smile to her, "Yes, your mommy is good." It is understandable that kids think no one is better than their mom.

Tammy obviously didn't mean that. When she heard Wayne compliment her mom, her face was suddenly lit up.

"Uncle Wright, do you think my mom could be your wife?" Wayne was stunned by her suggestion.

Although Wayne knew that Tammy liked to stay with him, he never expected that this little girl wanted to be a matchmaker for her mother and him. He paused for a while and only touched Tammy's head, not answering her question.

"Matthew also likes my mommy a lot."

Tammy played her trump card and blinked, "Ask Matthew. He must want my mommy to become his mommy."

Wayne looked at Matthew on the bed and hesitated to ask, "Really? Matthew?" Matthew nodded vigorously.

Wayne frowned. And Tammy kept saying, "Uncle Wright, Matthew doesn't like that big star at all. Shouldn't you consider his opinion if you want to get married? My mommy said that she would ask my opinion if she planned to find me a stepfather."
