

Night Stand 46

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 46

"I.... I'm leaving now. Sorry to interrupt you and Ms. Gabriel, Mr. Wright." The servant outside hurriedly explained.

Anna heard her hasty footsteps. "It's not like that." Anna ran to the door to explain to her, but there was no one in the hallway when she opened the door, as if it was only her illusion.

She felt like crying but had no tears. Great. Now I'm the real social climber who tries to seduce Wayne Wright.

"Do your servants all come and go like ghosts?" She turned around to look at Wayne with a scrunched-up face.

Wayne frowned and looked at her in confusion, "What?"

"Nothing. Just forget about it." Anna wanted to tell him that people would talk. But on second thought, she didn't bother to do so since he wouldn't understand it. When she was going to take the towels and leave, she suddenly thought of something and stood still on the hallway and turned back to him, "By the way, if you're not too busy, you'd better spend more time with Matthew. He always feels insecure. You must've seen how happy he is today when playing with Tammy. He needs someone to stay with him. But letting all those servants taking care of him is not enough. He needs someone that he likes."

She wanted to ask whether Wayne had to marry Ada Xavier because Matthew really seemed to dislike her. Besides that woman didn't look kind or nice. After hesitation, she decided not to say it out loud. It would be weird to ask this kind of question, and she was afraid that Wayne would mistake her concern and think she was interested in him. After all, this is his family affairs.

Seeing that Anna looked concerned for Matthew, he suddenly had an idea and said automatically, "Then you stay here and take care of him."

His deep voice echoed in the spacious house. Anna was surprised and asked, "What... What do you mean?"

Wayne frowned slightly. He also seemed surprised by his words. He quickly looked away to avoid Anna's eyes and said in a calm voice, "I can pay you three times as much as your salary as the hotel manager."

Anna was relieved when hearing this. She only took it as a joke, so she answered, half-joking, "I won't agree even if you pay me ten times as much as my salary. Considering the future of the career, I think a hotel manager is much more promising than taking care of your child. Mr. Wright, you may rest assured that I will focus on the job in the hotel. Don't test me in this way."

Wayne didn't say more, his face unemotional.
