

Night Stand 51

Chapter 51

When hearing what Peace had said, Anna was dumbfounded and her mind went blank.

Peace means that I have feelings for Wayne? How is that possible?

“Besides, there is no pure friendship between a man and a woman. Wayne is the CEO of the Carousel Group. He is very busy every day but he spares time and takes care of your child. Except for that he also has feelings for you, I can’t find any other reason for his behavior. That’s all.”

“Matthew likes the food that I cook so he often takes Matthew here to have dinner. And he takes care of Tammy just to express his thanks to me,” Anna said.

“Maybe he has made up his mind to be with you for the rest of his life,” Peace said. “That’s impossible.” Anna denied it without hesitation.

Hearing Anna’s denial, Peace tutted and chuckled with a meaningful look as if she had seen through Anna.

That night, Anna was sleepless. The words that Peace had said today and the memory of these days when she stayed with Wayne ran through her mind again and again.

In the middle of the night, she got up and went to the living room to drink water. When she got to the living room, she saw a new set of tea sets on the table.

Then she remembered that once Wayne came to visit her before, she poured water for him and let him make do with the cup that was a little broken. On the second day, Wayne brought this new tea set.

In addition to the tea set, Wayne would also bring her many things every time he came.

And she could see the stuff that Wayne had given her almost everywhere in the apartment.

Anna’s heart beat fast when she thought of this.

The next morning, Anna received a message from Wayne on her way to work. I’ve sent Tammy to school. Don’t worry.

On the crowded subway, Anna managed to type “Thank you” and couldn’t help smiling sweetly.
