

Night Stand 52

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 52

By the time they got there, Wayne and Matthew, who seemed to be there for a long time, had already collected a large basket of leaves.

The father and son were sitting on the picnic blanket and talking about Matthew's painting.

When Matthew saw Tammy, his eyes brightened. He stood up at once and looked around. However, he didn't see the person that he had expected to see for a long time. Then he frowned, turned to look at Wayne, and tugged at Wayne's sleeve.

"She's busy and won't come. I told you this morning before we went out," Wayne caressed Matthew's head and said patiently.

I've told him that Anna wouldn't come when we went out in the morning. Did he think that I was lying to him? Wayne thought.

Hearing that, Matthew pouted with a gloomy expression.

Peace walked towards them hand in hand with Tammy and then greeted Wayne and Matthew, "Hi, Mr. Wright. Hi, Matthew. Wow, the weather is so good today. It's a pity that Anna can't come here."

"Does she have anything urgent to do today?" Wayne asked casually while picking up the leaves messed up by Matthew.

"Mommy went to a wedding," Tammy said, tilting her head and blinking at Wayne. "She went to her ex-boyfriend's wedding!"

a little stunned and looked up at Peace eavesdropped on my conversation with your mother before?" Peace pinched Tammy's cheek threw herself into Wayne's arms. "Help! Uncle in her arms, Wayne looked absentmindedly.

She didn't intend to go to the party, but his ex-boyfriend's fiancée was so annoying that she called Anna every day. Anna had no choice

Will she cry?"

Anna was smart and brave. And she had an

Anna was like before. She used to be weak. Back then, she was cheated on by her ex-boyfriend and later she went abroad. Living abroad alone, Peace's words that were full of loopholes. At the same time, he suddenly felt a little bring their bulunul

Wayne's arms.

drawing board, pulled Wayne's you don't help Auntie Anna, I won't let you want me to do? She didn't ask me to be her male companion. And I may not be accompany her. Here's the thing. Anna's ex-boyfriend dated her best friend Lilian behind her back but Lilian actually had the nerve to invite Anna to their engagement party. Anna didn't want to go to the party but Lilian texted her to satirize her. Lilian has gone too far. And if Anna