

Night Stand 55

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 55

After Anna retorted Allie, Wayne also said bluntly, “Anna doesn’t care about her identity as the daughter of the Gabriel family. If you deliberately make trouble for her because of her identity, I will have to have a talk with Old Mr. Gabriel about what happened here. Guess what he will do when he knows that his elder daughter bullies her younger sister arrogantly in front of so many people.”

Hearing what Wayne had said, everyone changed their attitude in an instant.

Those who knew the truth about Anna’s identity but dared not speak before began to whisper

“I heard that Allie’s mother is Old Mrs. Gabriel’s second wife. And Old Mrs. Gabriel had a daughter with his first wife before. This girl called Anna may be that daughter.”

“I’ve also heard that. That was to say, Allie is an illegitimate child, right?”

“Maybe. Old Mr. Gabriel’s daughter with his first wife never showed up in public places with him so no one knows about her existence. But it can be seen that the Old Mr. Gabriel protected his younger daughter’s privacy well.”

Allie trembled with anger when the fake image that she had maintained for so many years was destroyed. And her boyfriend Bill, who had been standing beside her all the time, suddenly turned around and left.

Seeing this, she stamped her feet and shouted, “Bill, where are you going?” Then she immediately followed him.

Soon, Old Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, who heard what happened here, rushed over.

They were a little stunned when they saw Anna. But since they were sophisticated, they reacted quickly and then kept apologizing to Wayne and Anna.

Old Mrs. Palmer pulled his sleeves, glared at him, and said, “Look at what you have done! Apologize to Mr. Wright now.”

Jacob looked at Wayne with a frown and said reluctantly, “I’m sorry, Mr. Wright.”

Facing the sudden change in the situation, Lilian immediately changed her attitude, held Anna’s hand intimately, and said with a smile, “Anna, I’ve misunderstood you. Don’t be angry. I didn’t mean to offend you. Both you and Mr. Wright are my honored guests. Well, it’s time to open the champagne.”
