

Night Stand 59

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 59

“Well, I’m leaving now,” Old Mr. Wright suddenly said as he stood up and looked at Anna with a smile.

“Anna, you’re welcome to go to my place at any time. And don’t worry, I’ll arrange everything for the wedding. Feel free to tell me if you need anything.”

Anna couldn’t say a word and could only watch Old Mr. Wright leave. After Old Mr. Wright left, Wayne and Anna looked at each other. “I’ll drive you home later,” Wayne said. Anna wanted to refuse. But on second thought, she didn’t do that.

She wanted to make their relationship clear to Wayne and it was better to talk with him alone in the car than in the house where the maids and the butler were around.

Soon, the car was driven out of Kingsford Neighborhood. And the atmosphere in the car was a little dull.

Lowering her head, Anna played with her phone and browsed news on Facebook. But in fact, she was absent-minded.

“Should we turn right at the next intersection?” Wayne asked her naturally. Anna was stunned for a few seconds and nodded. “Yes.” After Wayne turned right, the traffic light turned red so he stopped the car.

There were still sixty seconds left before the light turned green and Wayne tapped the steering wheel with his slender finger from time to time.

Suddenly, he asked, “I have something to ask you about last night.”

He still remembered the feeling when he touched Anna’s skin and had s*x with her. This feeling was so familiar. Therefore, the whole morning, he couldn’t help wondering if she was the girl who had s*x with him six years ago.

“Last night...”

Anna’s body suddenly tensed up. She clenched her fingers and interrupted him, “Just forget about what happened last night.”

Wayne stopped tapping the steering wheel.
