

Night Stand 6

Chapter 6

Anna was amused and chuckled, "Why did you say that?"

"Because I don't think that daddy loves mommy." Tammy continued, "Other daddies kiss their children every day but my daddy visits us only once or twice a year. Each time, he just says a few words and then leaves. He doesn't even hug you. He doesn't love me. I don't want this daddy anymore."

Anna's heart sank.

She did not dare to tell Tammy the truth for fear that it would come as a terrible blow to her. So, Anna asked someone to help her out and pretend to be Tammy's father.

She did not expect Tammy to be so intelligent and considerate.

Tammy continued, "Mommy, don't think that I'll be upset by a divorce. Why don't you look for another man? As long as he loves me, I'll also be able to accept him! If he has children, I'll get along with them."

Anna's eyes turned red on hearing that, "Mommy doesn't
