

Night Stand 60

Chapter 60

When Anna returned home, Tammy gave her a warm welcome.

“Mommy, you are finally back! Did you enjoy yourself last night? You must be very happy!” . Tammy said excitedly.

Although Anna knew that Tammy didn't know much about the adult world at such a young age, she couldn't help but flick Tammy gently, “What makes you think that I must be very happy? And why did you ask Wayne to go to the engagement party?”

Tammy rubbed her head in pain and said with a pout, “It was not me but Matthew and Auntie Peace who asked him to go to the party. Auntie Peace said that Uncle Wayne was a hero who saved you!”

“Do you think I will believe what you said?” Anna said and glanced at her. Then she poured a glass of water for herself and asked casually, “What else did your Auntie Peace say?”

“She also said that in the fairy tales, the beauty would marry the hero who saved her,” Tammy answered honestly.

“Poof!” Anna was so shocked that she choked on the water and coughed.

Then she walked to the master bedroom, knocked on the door quickly, and said, “Peace, come out! I need to have a talk with you!”

It was the weekend and Peace should be sleeping at home. However, Anna knocked on the door for a long time but no one opened the door for her.

Anna felt something wrong and opened the door in confusion. Then she saw that the room was in a mess and Peace was not in the room.

“Auntie Peace is away on a business trip. She left early in the morning.” Tammy ran over and said. “She also said that when she wasn't here, you could invite Uncle Wayne to our home at any time. She wouldn't mind it.”

“What? Who said I would invite him to our house?” Anna raised her voice and said.

With a guilty conscience, she blushed and covered her face at once. “Forget it. I'm so tired. I'll go to sleep now. Don't disturb me.”

Tammy, who was driven back to her room but peeped at Anna through the ck of the door, covered her mouth and snickered.

Auntie Peace is awesome! It seems that Mom and Uncle Wayne enjoyed themselves last night!

In the afternoon, Anna still felt sore in her waist and back. She tossed and turned in bed and couldn't fall asleep.

At the thought of what had happened last night, she blushed and pulled the quilt over her head.
