

Night Stand 74

Chapter 74

A red palm print appeared on Wayne's face and he could feel how angry Anna was,

It was the first time that he had seen Anna so furious. And he couldn't help but feel regretful for his abruptness just now.

"I'm sorry," he said. Hearing this, Anna was stunned. She didn't expect Wayne to apologize to her

She had thought that he would be angry with her. After all, no one had ever disobeyed or slapped him.

She clenched her aching hand and felt a little uneasy. "Forget it. I.. I'll move away with Tammy soon."

"Hold on," Wayne stopped her and said. "You don't have to move away. I'll go on a long-term business trip and will take the flight at three this afternoon. Please help me take care of Matthew when I'm away."

Anna stopped her steps, hesitated for a moment, and then nodded.

If she moved away immediately, she had no place to live. And even if she wanted to rent a house, it took time.

After changing his clothes, Wayne went downstairs. He didn't continue to have breakfast but just told Matthew to be obedient when staying with Anna and then left.

Soon, the sound of the engine in the yard was heard and then gradually disappeared. Anna stared at her hand with mixed feelings and her heart beat fast.

She had to admit that she had feelings for Wayne. But Wayne was about to get married, and she couldn't destroy his relationship with Ada.

Because of the affair between Jacob and Lilian, she knew how hateful a third party in a relationship was. She couldn't do the same thing as Lilian.

At night, Wayne didn't come back.

Anna learned from the butler that Wayne had gone to Seriel on business. It was said that Wayne would cooperate with a big client from New York and would be away for half a month to one month
