

Night Stand 76

Chapter 76

“Yes, that’s all,” Anna said seriously and looked at Miss Hazel,

The next moment, Miss Hazel’s face darkened. She pointed at Anna and scolded, “You broke your word! How could you be so shameless? Do you think I’ll let go of what happened yesterday?”

Hearing her shouting, a group of people gathered in the hall to see what happened.

Anna said straightforwardly, “Yesterday, when we received your complaint that there were cockroaches in your room, we immediately dealt with it and changed a room for you. And we promised to compensate you. But after the investigation, we found that the cockroaches have nothing to do with our hotel.”

Miss Hazel’s face turned livid with anger when she heard this.

“I’ve never seen a shameless person like you. Are all the staff in Carousel Hotel so unreasonable? The hotel has infringed my rights and interests as a consumer. I’ll call the industrial and commercial bureau and the consumer protection bureau immediately.”

“Go ahead,” Anna said with a calm look. “Last night, I took the cockroaches in your room to the medical university nearby for a test. The test result shows that the cockroaches’ bodies have been dried and they have been dead for at least five days. But yesterday you said that you killed them on the carpet of your room half an hour after you checked in. It’s really strange.”

As soon as she finished her words, the crowd burst into an uproar and scolded Miss Hazel when they realized that she was a blackmailer.

Seeing this, Miss Hazel couldn’t say a word and ran away quickly with her head down.

After this matter, the other staff members of the hotel admired Anna more, especially John. He admired Anna’s braveness so much.

“Miss Gabriel, you are so brave that you are not afraid of those cockroaches! I was almost scared to death when I put them in the bag yesterday,” John said.

“So you still need to improve yourself in an all-around way. Now go back to work. Our next priority is to deal with the negative reviews. Come on,” Anna said with a calm look, patted John on the shoulder gently, and went back to her office.

As soon as she closed the door, she leaned against the door and breathed a sigh of relief.

In fact, Anna was also afraid of cockroaches. The cockroaches made her feel sick and she didn’t have the appetite to eat anything since she came back from the medical university. But for the sake of the reputation of the hotel, she had to bite the bullet and overcome her fear.

week, the hotel still

Anna checked every room in the hotel in person. After confirming that there was no problem with their sanitary conditions, she went back to her office in about the poor performance of the hotel, she sighed with worry. The turnover of the hotel was not only far from what she had promised before but declined sharply in the

This is the hell is going on? Who's secretly scheming against Carousel from Frank who said that he Frank sitting in the seat with an sleeping so I ordered a cup of hot milk for you. If you don't like it, said, "It's

and smiled. "Anna, I was the milk with a spoon without looking at him. After hesitating for a while, she said, "Dad,

I do for you?" Frank asked. Anna seldom made a request to him so he was happy me a house as a gift on about moving out of Wayne's house. She still thought that it was not appropriate for her and Tammy to live in his house and that she should find a new place to she thought of the house that Frank had given her before. After thinking it over again and again, she

with a delightful

Dad," Anna

in an intimate manner, her tone was still full of a sense of alienation as if she was not talking to her father with me when I left. Will you be at home this weekend? I want or not, you can go home at any time. Tell me in advance when you go home. I'll ask the maids to prepare your favorite food and we can have dinner together then," Frank

"Don't bother, Dad."

he said, "Take your daughter with you when you go home. After all, she is my granddaughter. I want to

is still young and can't frowned, wanting to speak but giving up on second

ISTRETTA.

cafe, Frank got into the