

Night Stand 8

Chapter 8

Anna looked up and saw Wayne.

She tilted her head slightly and wondered how she bumped into Wayne twice at the elevator.

Lilian asked, "Anna, are you alright?" Anna wrung her hands anxiously.

Lilian had been very sarcastic to Anna since they entered the elevator. She would be even more delighted if Anna did not have a boyfriend. Anna was pissed off and started to think of a way out.

The next moment, Anna leaned onto Wayne's shoulder. And she felt that he obviously tensed

Then she said coyly, "Honey, what a surprise! You must have been waiting in the elevator for a long time to surprise me, don't you?"

Everyone, apart from Anna, was speechless. Lilian, in particular, gritted her teeth, wondering.

he's wearing, I can tell such a handsome and

How could he be your boyfriend? You should have hired someone who is more convincing looked at Wayne. She could not read his thoughts and did

has the money to pay

just admit that he's was standing next to Wayne, flipped the documents and then said, "Mr. Wright, this is the speech for the

"Mr. Wright?" Lilian gasped.

I've heard a lot about him but I never have the chance to see him in was never a lascivious person. Some of his indiscreet business partners sent women to his bed, hoping that it would satisfy him. To their surprise, it only triggered his wrath, making them end up but he had never mentioned who the mother was.

wanted to be his son's stepmother but no one even managed to get close

He Is My