

Night Stand 84

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 84

“Me? I... i won’t go.” Thinking of taking a boat, Anna quickly waved her hand and said with a hint of fluster in her eyes, “I don’t want to go there.”

As soon as she finished her words, she lowered her head and saw Matthew clenching the corner of her clothes with one hand and looking at her expectantly with a note in his other hand.

I want you to go with me.

Anna was stunned for a second. Then her heart was softened and she couldn’t bear to see him disappointed.

She caressed Matthew’s head and said, “OK. I’ll go with you. I’ll go back to my room and change my clothes first.”

Matthew doesn’t have a mother, and Wayne is indeed not an attentive father. They have been here for just one day and due to Wayne’s carelessness, Matthew was sunburned.

What if they go to the island but Wayne doesn’t take good care of Matthew again? Besides, Matthew can’t swim. I’d better go with them.

“Okay.” Wayne nodded and said. He looked expressionless and cool but actually, he was very delighted

Early in the morning, he saw Anna drinking coffee alone at the cafe. Then he asked the crew of Travel with My Idol about the filming schedule. When he learned that Scott had taken Tammy to the island, he was in a good mood the whole morning.

After getting ready, the three of them went to the dock. They would go to the island by speedboat.

Seeing the life jacket, Anna couldn’t help feeling a little dizzy. She braced herself to put it on and sat in her seat nervously, not daring to look at the sea.

“Sir, please slow down,” she said to the boat driver with a trembling voice. Wayne, who sensed that there was something wrong with her, asked, “Are you okay?”

“I’m okay,” Anna said with a forced smile and tried to calm herself down. “Buckle the wind rope of Matthew’s hat. Or it will be blown away if the wind gets stronger.”

Wayne nodded and buckled the rope for Matthew. Then he found that Anna tried to buckle the rope of her sunhat but failed again and again and that her hands were trembling.

“Are you sure you’re all right?” Wayne frowned and asked. “Let’s go back if you feel uncomfortable.”

“It’s okay. I’m fine. The boat is wobbly and I can’t buckle it,” Anna said.

After hesitating for a moment, Wayne leaned over and held Anna’s hand. “Let me help you.”
