

Night Stand 85

Chapter 85

“No, I don’t want to go there...”

Anna’s whimper came from time to time. Holding her tightly in his arms, Wayne felt sorry for her.

Anna’s life experience was different from that of him.

When his father passed away, he was thirteen years old. Although his mother had left him, his grandfather brought him up and they were in a good relationship,

As for Anna, she lost her mother not long after she was born. Later, her father remarried and had a new family. And Anna had to live with her grandfather when she was young

After her grandfather, who loved her dearly passed away, her father took her back to the Gabriel family. However, she was in an embarrassing position in the family. As a member of her family, she was like an outsider.

Karl, Wayne’s only friend since he was a child, had ever said that Wayne was stubborn.

Wayne always thought that it was the environment that he grew up in made him stubborn.

In his opinion, Anna should have been more stubborn than him because she grew up in a worse environment. But she was not.

Instead, she lived a free and unconventional life. She could abandon her identity as the daughter of the Gabriel family without hesitation and stand on her own feet by working as a manager in the hotel.

Wayne had thought that he knew Anna well. In his eyes, she was a woman who was smart and capable at work but couldn’t take good care of herself in life.

But after getting along with her for so long, he felt that he didn’t know her well enough. The rain was getting heavier and heavier.

With a frown, Wayne looked at the sea and the heavy mist and asked, “How long will it take to go back to the dock?”

“We’re almost there. Don’t worry. The rain usually lasts only five to ten minutes,” the driver said as he took a sudden turn and drove the boat as fast as he could.

had been back to the hotel

the sea were urgently evacuated while some of them capsized in the sea. The local government had dispatched the rescue team to rescue the people in staff members from Enlight Media, including the director of the variety show were waiting for Scott’s news in the hotel hall. They were all stunned when they saw Wayne come with Anna.

“Mr. Wright, this is...”

then went

Don't

+25 Points

*25 Points

of the others who stood there boat, she doesn't need to take medicine for seasickness. But she got wet in the rain and has a fever now. Don't worry. She'll be fine after taking some antipyretics and having a good rest," the doctor said room accompanied by the director and saw Wayne. Then he greeted Wayne at once, "Mr.

to take care nearby island capsized and caused heavy casualties. Now many people are being rescued in the hospital is busy and both medical facilities and medical staff here are scarce. I'm afraid we this, it suddenly occurred to him that Tammy hadn't come back yet. He tensed and asked, so he immediately explained, "Don't worry, Mr. Wright. It's not the one that Scott took. Scott and the daughter of Miss Gabriel it." Wayne waved his Wayne gazed at Anna. He suddenly remembered that when she met Lilian in always does something amazing, making me marvel at her courage. Now she is weak and helpless, making me want to protect her and take care of wanted to look closely at Anna's face. But somehow, he couldn't help getting closer and closer to her.

the curtains violently. On the wall, their shadows looked like a

her in and put a cold