

Night Stand 89

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 89

In the afternoon, all the flights were grounded due to the rainstorm. Later, Wayne learned that the airport would be closed in the following two days.

Therefore, he had to stay in the Maldives with Matthew for two more days. And it was already three days later when they arrived home.

At Kingsford Neighborhood.

In the villa, Wayne stood at the door of Anna's room and looked at the empty room silently with a frown.

"Mr. Wright, Miss Gabriel came back two days ago and took all her belongings away. She said that she had found a new place to live," Henry said.

"What else did she say?" Wayne asked.

"She said that she lived here for more than a month and should pay the rent. Then she left five thousand dollars here."

Henry showed the paper bag in his hand to Wayne and said, "I didn't tell her your bank account when she offered to pay the rent. Then on the second day, she brought this bag of cash."

At the sight of the paper bag, Wayne's face darkened. Does she want to make a clean break with me so much? At this time, Matthew pulled the hem of his clothes, looking aggrieved and flustered.

Wayne said impatiently, "Didn't you see the room has been empty? She has left. It's no use pulling my clothes.", ".

Hearing that, Matthew pouted and then burst into tears.

Seeing this, Henry and the maids were at a loss. They took turns to comfort him but it was in vain.

Wayne was both angry and distressed. He raised her voice and said, "Is she so good? She's not your mother. Why do you like her so much?"

Matthew kept sobbing and couldn't utter a word.

Henry quickly asked the maids to take Matthew back to his room and then he persuaded Wayne, "Mr. Wright, don't be angry. When Miss Gabriel came back, I could see that something was weighing on her mind. I don't know what happened to her. Didn't she enjoy herself when she was in the Maldives?"

At the mention of this, Wayne frowned more tightly and thought. There was nothing wrong with her when she was in the Maldives except for the day before she came back. She looked fine on the beach in the afternoon but looked absent-minded at dinner. Scott said that she had something to deal with at home. Did anything happen to her family?
