

Night Stand 93

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 93

Previously, it was just his guess that Anna was alienating herself from him. But at this moment, he was sure about it according to Anna's behavior.

Matthew struggled in Wayne's arms and even patted his face, both angry and anxious.

The next moment, Wayne grabbed his little hands and said expressionlessly, "She has her own child and doesn't care about you. It's meaningless for you to follow her. Let's go home now."

After saying that, he held Matthew tightly in his arms and walked towards the school gate regardless of Matthew's sobs.

In the infirmary, after Dr. Turturro told Anna the dos and don'ts for taking care of an asthmatic. After that, Anna left with Tammy in her arms.

When the two of them came out of the kindergarten, they saw Scott waving at them on the other side of the road. "I'm here, Anna!"

It was very hot this day but Scott was wearing a gray coat, sunglasses, and a cap, which made him more conspicuous.

Seeing him wave at them, Anna was speechless

When she got into the car, she said, "Why did you get out of the car? Aren't you afraid that others would recognize you?"

Scott fastened his seat belt as he said, "There are so you couldn't find me. Don't worry. I've disguised myself and no one will recognize me."
