

Night Stand 94

Chapter 94

The next day, Anna took Tammy back to Gabriel's House with some health care products,

When they got there, Harriet welcomed them warmly Frank had told her that Anna would come back with Tammy so she cooked a lot of dishes for them.

"Miss Anna, welcome back. Mr. Gabriel just asked me when you would arrive. He's been waiting for you the whole morning." Harriet beamed.

When she saw Tammy, she said with her eyes brightening with joy, "Hi, Tammy!" "Tammy, this is Granny Harriet. Say hello to her," Anna introduced Harriet to Tammy "Hi, Granny Harriet. Nice to meet you," Tammy said with a smile.

Seeing her so cute and sweet, Harriet grinned from ear to ear. She was so excited that she subconsciously raised her voice and said loudly in the direction of the study, "Mr. Gabriel, Miss Anna has come back with Tammy!"

Soon, the door of the study on the second floor was opened. Frank went out of the study and couldn't help quickening his pace when coming downstairs.

"Anna, you're back," he said full of joy. When seeing Tammy holding Anna's hand with a cute look, he felt a little nervous.

Anna walked forward to Frank with Tammy and introduced them to each other, "Dad, this is Tammy Tammy, this is your Grandpa."

Tammy looked Frank up and down for a while and then said in a sweet voice, "Grandpa is different from what I imagined."

"Different? What's the difference?" Frank asked nervously.

Tammy tilted her head and said, "In my imagination, Grandpa should be very old and has much gray hair."

Hearing this, Harriet and the other maids were amused and laughed. Frank breathed a sigh of relief and smiled helplessly while gazing lovingly at Tammy.

Then he bent over, took Tammy's hand, and said, "I'm indeed very old, but I'm not that old to have gray hair. But I will have much gray hair in the future."

"I don't want you to have gray hair," Tammy shook her head and said, "Mommy said people with gray hair are old. When people get old, they may not be healthy as before and have no appetite to eat delicious food."

"What do you like to eat?" Frank asked smilingly.

"I like to eat many kinds of foods. But my favorite is dessert!" Tammy answered.
