

Night Stand 95

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 95

Allie said indignantly, "Dad, I'm not shouting. I just think that Anna came back with no good intentions. Don't be deceived by her."

"She is your younger sister," Frank said with a frown. "She hasn't come back for so many years. Why do you treat her like this when seeing her? What's your problem?"

"I don't have such a shameless sister!" Allie said with a sly smile with her arms folded

"Dad, you may not know what shameful thing she has done. Six years ago, she said that she went abroad for further study. But actually, she went abroad because she was pregnant. She gave birth to a child before marriage and hid it from us. She even doesn't know who her child's father is."

Allie and Shirley believed that Frank would get furious when he knew that Anna had an illegitimate child.

Shirley, who was hypocritical, persuaded Frank, "Frank, don't be angry with Anna. She was still young at that time and might not dare to tell you about it. Don't blame her and just let it go."

Hearing that, Anna didn't say anything but just sneered with her eyes full of contempt and irony

"Grandpa!" Suddenly, Tammy's childish voice broke the awkward atmosphere and extinguished the hope of Allie and Shirley.

Tammy came out of the study with Frank's most precious antique pipe and rubbed her eyes with a drowsy look. "Grandpa, I want to eat cake."

When Frank saw her, his serious expression immediately softened. He bent down, picked up Tammy, and went downstairs as he said, "Okay. Let's go eat cakes."

Then he took Tammy to the kitchen.

Although he didn't respond to Allie's words, what he did had shown his attitude and was undoubtedly a slap in the faces of Allie and Shirley.

Allie couldn't believe what she had seen and her face turned livid with anger.

Later, when Anna left, Allie gritted her teeth and said, "What did you do to make Dad accept your bastard?"
