

Night Stand 98

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 98

“Does anyone else know about it?” After calining down, Ada asked Jason and clenched her fists, her nails sinking into her palm“.

Jason frowned and said firmly, “No. The killers were sure that no one witnessed what they did. And they will keep it a secret. Except for them, only Pearson knows about this. The killers have promised me that they would find Pearson and kill him as soon as possible. But I’m worried that something unexpected will happen before they find him.”

When Ada heard this, her face darkened and she said, “Pearson is unlikely to be still alive. If he was alive, he would have gone to the police station to report the case. But now we’ve got no news about him. I guess that something might have happened to him. Ask the killers to go to the hospital or the shelter nearby to look for Pearson. He may hide in these places.”

The fire was so big and even many houses around Leo’s were burnt Pearson was drugged and unconscious at that time. How is it possible that he escaped safe and sound? Ada tried to comfort herself with her analysis and gradually unclenched her fists.

The next morning. Anna set out to Laxis Town, a town two hundred kilometers away from Birmingham

The first hotel that she came to do market research on was a B&B called Maplesugar Hotel which ranked first on the hot hotel list.

“Miss, your room is the first room on the right on the second floor.” After Anna checked in, the receptionist returned Anna her ID card and said, “I’ll take you to your room. This way, please.”

“Thank you,” Anna said with a smile.

The receptionist was a girl under twenty years old and was very enthusiastic. She was wearing a green T-shirt and shorts, and her words and behaviors were full of youthful vigor.

“Are you the only staff here? Can you manage everything alone?” Anna asked.

“I’m not the only staff. We have a manager. But the manager has gone somewhere else and hasn’t come back for two months,” the receptionist said.

Hearing this, Anna frowned and felt a little disappointed.

On the one hand, she came here to do market research. On the other hand, she wanted to invite the manager of Maplesugar Hotel to join Carousel Hotel.

The decoration of Maplesugar Hotel was much better than she had expected, which made her more determined to poach the manager. She believed that if the manager could participate in the youth hotel project of Carousel Group, the project would definitely be accomplished more efficiently
