

Night Stand 99

Falling in Love With A One-Night Stand

Chapter 99

"Grandpa, you are so well informed that you even know such a tulle about the company." Wayne said expressionlessly

"What do you mean? You've taken over the company and are in charge of it so I have no right to ask about the affairs in the company now?" Old Mr. Wright said with a darkened face "Anna has a child to take care of. Why did you have to send her on a business trip? You are also a parent Why didn't you spare a thought for her?"

Hearing that, Matthew kept nodding approvingly.

Wayne glanced at him and said calmly. "It's not only my decision to send Anna to go on a business trip. The other representatives were all unanimous in this decision in the meeting Grandpa, when did you become so familiar with her?"

Anna is really something. She got close to Mathew and made him like her and depend on her companionship. Then she left a good impression on Grandpa and made Grandpa pay more attention to her. Now even Grandpa even speaks for her. But when I doubted her and questioned her, she pretended to be innocent and indifferent and said that she had no feelings for me. What does she want to do?

"Anna is a good girl. Mathew likes her. And I think that she's the right person for you. Is there anything wrong with me getting familiar with my future granddaughter-in-law?" Old Mr. Wright said.

"I didn't say I would marry her," Wayne said lukewarmly. His attitude broke the cozy atmosphere in the dining room. "If Mathew wants a mother, there are many ideal choices except for Anna. To be exact, I have never considered marrying Anna. And I don't think a single mother like her is good enough to marry into the Wright family."

When Matthew heard this, his face turned livid with anger.

Old Mr. Wright was also very displeased, "Anna indeed has a child but she is a good person. Anna is not good enough? Then who do you think is good enough? Do you still want to marry the star called Ada who is always involved in various gossip? Perish the thought."

Wayne put down his knife and fork, wiped his mouth slowly, and said coldly, "I'm full. I don't think Mathew wants to go home with me. He'll stay here tonight." After saying that, he left.

"You..." Old Mr. Wright was so angry that he couldn't say a word and could only watch Wayne leave.

Besides him, Matthew kept pulling his sleeve anxiously.

Seeing this, Old Mr. Wright held Matthew in his arms and let Matthew sit on his lap.

Then he sighed and said helplessly, "Mathew, it's not that I don't want to help you. Your father is too stubborn. He has always been like this since he was a child. Once he makes a decision, no one can change his mind."
