

No Chance 105

Chapter 105 Ten Years

Just after they were done serving dinner, Sheena and Carle arrived.

When they saw the six dishes and soup on the dining table, their eyes lit up in delight.

“Smells good! Just to my liking!” Sheena could not help but exclaim.

She changed her shoes into a pair of indoor slippers, washed her hands and sat at the dining table. She closed her eyes and took a deep breath. Then, she sighed in satisfaction. “I didn’t eat at home because I got into a fight with my family. I didn’t expect that fight to be a blessing in disguise!”

Rachel sat next to Sheena and asked curiously. “Why did you fight with your family?”

Elisa took off her apron and walked toward them. She saw Rachel and Sheena sitting next to each other.

She could only sit opposite Sheena.

Carle went over and sat next to Elisa.

them not to do so, and that I would never do that. But they insisted that I must, for I was born into the family and I have enjoyed all the wealth my family had provided was really furious, she and suggested. “You should move out for the moment to avoid them. Don’t go back and her lips. She raised her eyes and looked at Carle. “Sigh. I would rather marry you. I’ll definitely agree to an arranged marriage moment. Then he smiled. “My father did not

I was just joking.

could not say

lightly. “Hey, let’s stop talking about those food and put it on her plate. “Right! I made it here just served a few cans of beer. “You should get a chauffeur Elisa. “No. I’ll stay here. Elisa, you have to let me stay for the night. If not, Rachel’s place can

“Are we being extorted by insisted. “Well, don’t you love

a mouthful of the food. She sighed in satisfaction. “This is simply the most delicious food on Earth! Elisa,

“Just