

No Chance 106

Chapter 106 The Critical Moment

Because of that, Rachel kept trying to match Elisa with Carle.

If she knew, she would not do that.

Rachel laughed, "Well, perhaps that isn't necessarily true. You might not need to worry about it at all if Elisa races for you!"

Carle smiled bitterly. "I know that there is no chance of me winning this time. I heard that Darcey Group and Wickam Group are offering Wisteria quite a handsome price to race for them. No matter who gets Wisteria then, the champion will not be me."

The smile on his handsome face looked awkward.

Sheena's eyes glistened. "Don't say that. Everything will be fine by then."

"Come, let's have a drink first!" Rachel raised her beer and they clinked their cans together.

Elisa quietly took a mouthful of food, then spoke slowly. "I can help you. But I cannot promise you first place. I will do my best though."
