

No Chance 113

Chapter 113 She Had Seen Her Before!

Just as Renee was bemused to stumble upon a black leather board, Elisa had already uncovered it from the ground.

Elisa's action took Renee by surprise, "This is..."

"Follow me."

There was a stairway underground!!

Renee was mind blown. She didn't expect an uninhibited place like this to have a hidden underground.

Seeing that Elisa had entered the stairway, Renee had no choice but to follow. Meanwhile, Elisa reminded her, "Close the black leather board."

Renee did as told by Elisa.

The stairway was pitch-dark. Elisa took out her phone and turned on the flashlight.

They got to the last steps on the stairway and entered a narrow and long passage that only had enough space for two people to walk in.

Renee was increasingly discomposd. Her instincts were at a clamour, "Where are you taking me?!"

Elisa said indifferently, "I'm going to show you Hayden's life. His true colour."

and decided to follow since she was hundred meters, they heard a far-flung noise. It seemed that end of the passage. Elisa pushed the rays shone through the crack. Darkness was instantly washed now they could only hear noises from even though she had her sunglasses on. It cast a shadow on her face and enabled an array of tables the size of billiard was surrounded by people. They stood around and pried attentively at the center of the table. The sound of bargaining and cheering enveloped every inch believe there was a massive casino under a piece of uninhibited

at around and looked at her, "Follow say anything and followed after

Is Hayden here?

with their games;

a breath of relief. Elisa must have had prepared in indifferently, "This is where Hayden frequents. To be precise, he is Renee was perturbed, "He...!"

possible that he runs such an really his work, she decided to not comment because she didn't want to