

No Chance 126

Chapter 126 I'll Never Forgive Them

Elisa rang the doorbell.

The butler opened the door. He smiled when he saw that she was still the same as when they had met before.

"Welcome, Ms. Benett." He felt awkward not addressing her as Ms. Elisa.

Elisa, on the other hand, was content with it. She smiled and nodded. "Hello, Mr. Jones."

He moved to the side as Elisa entered, holding a present.

Julia was waiting on the sofa. When she heard their voices, she called out, "Elisa, come here quickly. We agreed to meet for one and a half hours, and you came exactly on the dot. You could have come earlier!"

Elisa changed into indoor slippers. "There was a traffic jam on the way here." She smiled as she stepped closer to Julia.

"Come and sit, quickly!"

next to her sighed in relief. She was worried that sorry that I haven't seen you in a

You've always come to my birthday celebration for the last few years. Why? You can't come tomorrow? Are her head. "How could I? Grandma, don't take it the wrong way. It's only because of do you mean, awkward? It's not a problem! You are my granddaughter. I won't let them go if they say a word against you!" Julia

How could those people treat

a few times.

She had made up her mind before she came and even brought Julia's thoughts as her eyes strayed to the Elisa handed the present to Julia, Julia said, "I don't care. If you're not giving me my present during the celebration, I will not take it!

how could I disown you?" Elisa said, taken only granddaughter. I just want you to accompany me during the party. Are you really