

No Chance 129

Chapter 129 You Are My Savior

Elisa furrowed her eyebrows as she turned to Rachel. "Did you sign an agreement when you accepted the case?"

"I..." Rachel gritted her teeth in frustration.

"I only accepted it because I needed the money. He sounded so sincere when he was describing the other party. I thought that it would be impossible to lose. He even said that if we win the case, he will pay twice the amount of money, but if we lose, I will have to pay him fifty million instead. I didn't think much when I signed the contract."

Exasperated, Rachel raised her mouse in the air, about to slam it into the table.

Elisa stopped her and tapped her head lightly. "Do you believe in the words of a businessman? Besides, as a lawyer yourself, didn't you realize the flaw in this?"

"I..." Rachel stammered. "It was only..."

desperate for money? How much ago. He wants me to get married. I refused to. He cut off my money and blocked my card. I can't didn't mean it when he asked you to what he has done? And now he still treats me so? He will never get sighed. All families have their own problems. She was not in a card from her bag. "There's a million on was about to protest when Elisa added, "I'm lending

"Alright! I'll take intention of asking Rachel spirits were dampened again. "Elisa, help me! You're Iris. What should I do to win this case? I can't take it if I have to compensate just accept it." Elisa scrolled the you have an idea?! You actually have a