

No Chance 136

Chapter 136 Too Late

There were rumors that Elisa was a kind-hearted, and well-informed individual; but now...?

People grew doubts about Elisa. Is it possible Elisa is jealous of Gareth? His kindness towards Linda was a rouse!

As people formed their opinions, Elisa announced in an authoritative tone. "Since Mr. Benett and I are divorced, my cousin became terribly heartbroken. She even expressed her remorse that she was the reason for our separation. Linda has even told me the separation had upset her greatly and that she became suicidal. I am completely responsible for this, and still, carry that guilt with me."

The reporters were taken aback. 'Ms. Elisa blames herself so much!'

"Well, yes! Ms. Elisa has a reputation to be too kind. She's such an angel in disguise!" Ben said.

Rachel gagged from that statement, but she knew what Ben's intentions were from that statement. She stepped forward as the expectant crowd waited for her turn to speak on this issue. The cameras turned towards her for the shot.

to go ballistic with Rachel Markee on screen. "What else does Rachel wish a close friend of Elisa, I've met Linda through my many visits to their home. I am absolutely saddened by her condition...Linda is an empathetic woman, who cared this statement. "Miss Linda course, they

was holding back her cards her eyes expressed sadness. Since Linda is so desperate to have a good reputation, let's give her just is the textbook example of kindness. If she weren't, what would have driven in a coma from her love for Mr. Benett. Linda, being too that facade, Elisa grinned in secret. She knew something was wrong, with how much wreckage that accident had caused. No one could have survived to tell the tale. Yet, Linda ended up in a coma, just to lies. I'll help her build it, so I can watch it fall from her tall tales. That would be such just that –