Chapter 137 Gotten Ahead

What Elisa said next etched deep in everyone's mind.

She heaved a sigh and said, "But Linda's attitude was unwavering. She claimed that no matter what, she couldn't be the source of discord between the two of us. She rather stays single forever and would never marry Mr. Wickam. She said she didn't want to play the bad guy and make others think that she's a mistress who eventually achieved her motive."

Linda freaked out at Elisa's remark.

"Oh my gosh! Miss Linda is indeed a shrewd woman. She knows by marrying Mr. Wickam, not only will she hurt her cousin, but the public will also deem her an outrageous woman."

"Exactly. I'm very impressed by Miss Linda's generosity. I might not be as big-hearted as her if I were in her position. In fact, she made the right decision to not marry Mr. Wickam because if she did, the others would despise her. After all, Mr. Wickam has been taking care of her when she was unconscious, and he often brings her out even before his divorce. If she really married Mr. Wickam, she would truly be a home-wrecker."

"Miss Linda would become notorious for being a home-wrecker if that happens. Of course she wouldn't do so."

Rachel was greatly entertained by the comments from the reporters.
