

No Chance 144

Chapter 144 I'm Strong

Elisa snickered inwardly, thinking that Rose was shrewd and sly.

'That's how family members should treat each other.' She's implying that I don't deem them as my family because I don't go home, and it's me who chose to keep a distance from them.

Obviously, Rose said those words to make known to the others that Elisa is a hypocrite, hence affecting her image in the others' minds. As such, the others might have a different interpretation of Elisa's answer during the interview yesterday.

Since Elisa had already commenced her plan, she wouldn't give them any chance to strike back.

She nodded with a smile. "That's true, Aunt Rose. It has been a while since we got together. I mentioned this to Linda last time, but she seemed to be occupied at that time and went away to handle her matters after a quick chat. I hope Linda is available tomorrow night."

Rose was caught off guard by Elisa's remark while Linda almost lost her cool.

Nonsense! This is not true at all! Elisa, I never knew you're such a natural liar!

the other hand, Elisa successfully returned the compliment. Initially, Rose implied that Elisa was the one who dissociated herself you some other days, you were busy too, hence we did not meet up all this lips, Elisa nodded. "I see. You and your family are kind to me. There's rendered speechless. Listening to the superficial conversation, she was bored and even felt like conversation was dull, and they even had to guard against any nearby guests are falling asleep listening

the surroundings and laughed in spite of herself when Elisa, Linda, and Rose, Rachel let out a cough and blurted, "I just the blue, attracting all other guests to on both sides. They held her arms carefully as if all

wore a genuine smile