

Get Lost 15

Chapter 15 Leisure and Carefree

Linda frowned and looked at Elisa with concern. "Elisa, you should explain things. You mustn't always behave in such a secretive manner!"

Did she say I always behave in a secretive manner?

She is playing another game with words. Isn't she implying to Gareth that I always meet with other men in secret and am a disloyal wife to Gareth?

Sensing Gareth's cold gaze, Elisa pressed the relevant floor button in the elevator and smiled. "Since you're not getting in, Will and I shall go up first."

Then, she pressed a button to shut the elevator door.

Will's smile did not reach his eyes. He kept looking at Elisa until the elevator door closed and noticed she remained unaffected. He could not hide the astonishment in his eyes as he said, "Does this mean you and Gareth were only acting as a loving couple all these years?"

Elisa slanted her head slightly. "Mr. Darcey, you are an astute man. Is there a need to ask?"

Will smiled and noticed there was nothing on her fair and slender fingers. He made a 'tsk' noise and said, "Your fingers are flawless, but they lack something. Why don't I send something to you?"

Elisa looked at him puzzledly. "What is it?"

said, "It won't be a

The elevator soon stopped at their floor. Thus, they got out and little as the gentlemanly manner. Although Elisa had heard many rumors about him being a womanizer, she found it hard door, turning the private lounge into their personal

they were here to discuss

for

to eat before he did. In fact, they were too nervous to have an appetite

cutleries. "Are you

"Drinking will affect work."

someone

life might be complete instead of being beginning to feel full, she looked at Will eating slowly and asked, "Mr. Darcey, since you ask me out tonight, what is it that you wish to remind whether his

me if I said

you

...

in a private lounge. The waiter had finished