

No Chance 150

Chapter 150 Whose Plan Is This

Linda had a panicked gaze and tugged Shirley's hand, wanting to say something. However, Shirley insisted, "Have you forgotten that you saved Gareth's life? The Wickam family should not have disregarded your good deed in public!"

However, Shirley did not notice a sly glint in Linda's eyes. She was doing exactly what Linda wanted.

Shirley had unwittingly become Linda's pawn. Linda thought Shirley's presence had saved her a lot of trouble.

As Linda was about to pretend to stop Shirley, Shirley headed straight toward Julia. "Old Madam Wickam."

Julia turned around and saw Shirley walking toward her with a smile. Seeing her smile, Julia smiled back and said, "Ms. Lowe, what's the matter?"

Many guests began watching Shirley and Julia. They were not interested in the gourmet delicacies on the table. They had those so frequently that they were sick of them.

they were more interested in the scene soon noticed Shirley and Linda whispering amongst themselves, and Linda seemed in disagreement about something. Thus, they to speak to you about. I believe you will be curious once you hear about it. It will interest all the to Elisa. However, Elisa only glanced at Shirley briefly before looking away and remained undisturbed as she sat look at Gareth. That infuriated Gareth, prompting his expression to want Shirley to continue speaking, but she could not stop her in this situation. Thus, she had no choice but to smile and present on the same day as Elisa. Furthermore, the present costs a hefty sum. Family

Madam Wickam to compare the but purse their lips. One of the guests complained, it means she knows Elisa's present is not as good as Linda's. Once the presents are brought out, everyone would