Chapter 152 The Presents

The butler answered in affirmative and went to the room where the presents were kept.

Everyone waited in anticipation.

They knew Elisa and Linda were not only cousins but were also Gareth's ex and current romantic partner.

Furthermore, both ladies were close to members of the Wickam family. Each had its supporters.

Julia and Jerry were on Elisa's side, while Darren and Monica sided with Linda. Furthermore, Linda saved Gareth's life. It seemed Linda had a vast advantage, but she said she would never marry Gareth. That turned the whole matter strange and threw both sides off course.

Thus, the crowd was waiting to see the drama unfold.

There was always some kind of drama ever since Gareth and Elisa divorced.

Meanwhile, Linda did not return to her seat but waited at the side as she would be presenting her gift soon.
