

No Chance 154

Chapter 154 Of the Same Mind

Julia looked at Elisa with concern. If it weren't for the guests around them, she would have lifted Elisa's skirt to check her knees.

Meanwhile, Linda's expression suddenly turned pale.

Elisa! Damn it!

Even Shirley hesitated about showing Linda's present. She only undid the ribbons but did not open the box so that she could easily show the present when it was her turn.

Rachel chuckled and said, "Old Madam Wickam, the abbot of Lumineer Temple said you should place this jade peacock ornament in your bedroom. It will bless you with longevity."

Julia nodded with a smile. "I sure will. Jade is known to bring good luck, and this ornament has been blessed. It is a very meaningful gift to me."

Then, Julia held Elisa's hand. "Elisa, thank you so much for this gift. But you must never do something like this again, okay? You mustn't hurt yourself for my sake."

head. "Grandma, it's what I wanted to do. After all, you are sweet child.

an astonished expression. She see her genuinely happy. It doesn't matter as long as she is happy. Furthermore, he took a sip from a glass of

at Elisa with a smile, said, "Don't worry about it. It's have such hand and refused to let go. She we have only presented one gift. There's still Linda's not feel like revealing her present. No matter how expensive her present was, it could not compare to Elisa's expect

went to Lumineer Temple. Unfortunately, after hearing about the requirements, she was unable to perform them due to her health conditions. Therefore, she had no choice but to select this present for