

No Chance 159

Chapter 159 A Sudden Realization

Elisa closed her eyes and chose not to speak anymore.

Linda breathed a sigh of relief. She finally has no way to defend herself!

Thus, Linda came to Julia and said, "Grandma, I am at fault too. If I had asked around, this wouldn't have happened. It's... It's my fault, Grandma. I hope you won't blame Elisa. She didn't know any better."

"Didn't know any better?" Monica sneered. "How can that be so? She is already in her twenties."

Monica had always looked down on Elisa and disliked her. Previously, she could only admonish Elisa at home.

Now that Elisa committed something severe and had wounded Julia's heart, Monica pretended to be indignant on Julia's behalf and used the chance to scold Elisa.

you? She loves you with her whole heart. Yet, you did this to her. How dare you trick Linda into buying this a word. He kept feeling that something was wrong. Elisa is a clever woman and is also a lawyer. I've witnessed how eloquent she can be. But why is she not saying fury. She frowned and said, "Elisa, why won't you tell the truth? Why are you still protecting her? Not only did she refuse to heed your warning, but she even dragged you down to save herself. Has she ever

Linda narrowed her eyes.

Damn it!

still have something under her

turned to Rachel. "Rachel, what are you was going to gift this to Old Madam Wickam. How can you say we faked this? There are surveillance recordings and purchase records. Do you want us to bring out the evidence talked about buying a gift for Grandma, she meant my grandmother! Not Old eyes

astonished. "Damn! It's turned to